NEW YORK, July 7, 1875.

The Loeder-Price Perjury Case.

At a further examination to-day of Joseph Loeder, charged with perjury and conspiracy in the Tilton-Beecher case, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher was called as a witness. At the request of the District Attorney, he looked over the affidavit of Loeder and was asked if any of the statements in the affidavit referring to him and Mrs. Tilton were true in fact. Mr. Beecher replied that there is nothing that there is true there alleged. He was then asked to read the affidavit made by Price in connection with Loeder. He testified that there was not one word of truth in the allegations respecting him in his affidavit.

On cross-examination Mr. Beecher testified he was unguarded in his intercourse with any one, and certainly not with any lady. This association with Mrs. Tilton was that of a gentleman with a lady. It was not his custom to salute his lady friends with a kiss. He had sometimes kissed Mrs. Tilton. When he had been away for some time he kissed the Tilton family all around, but did not do so when he was in the habit of calling every few days. Mrs. Tilton had sometimes met him at the door in company with her husband, but he did not remember that she ever opened the door for him. His visits to Mrs. Tilton sometimes lasted five minutes, sometimes half an hour, sometimes an hour. Half an hour was about the usual length of time. He usually spent his visits in conversations. He had prayed with her, but only, he felt sure, when she was sick. He judged of this by his usual custom with his parishioners. He thought very likely there was a sofa in Mrs. Tilton's parlor, and that he might have sat upon it with her. His age was sixty-two years. He was old enough to be Miss Tilton's grandfather, and he felt towards her like a father.

Mr Britton objected to inquiries into Mrs. Tilton's disposition, which were wholly immaterial here.

Justice Riley so ruled, and the examination of Beecher was here finished.

District Attorney Britton said that he here proposed to rest the case of the people. General Pryor had been present, but he told him his testimony was not required. He took pleasure in saying there was not a shadow of reflection upon General Pryor in this case as counsel, or otherwise. That gentleman was absolutely incapable of any improper connection with an affair of this kind. Moreover he had found in his investigation of this case that General Pryor was brought into it purely by an accident, and under circumstances which would drive almost any one.

Justice Riley expressed his gratification with these remarks of the District Attorney.

Loeder's counsel said Price was a man who had been guilty of perjury, and he was the one whom the prosecution proposed to use as a witness.

District Attorney Britton denied this, saying he wished Price to be held with Loeder. He did not propose to use the testimony of any acknowledged perjurer against another.

Justice Riley then committed Loeder and Rice to await the action of the Grand Jury.

The usual questions were asked the prisoners, Rice acknowledging that he was guilty, and Loeder pleading not guilty.

Beecher Before the Grand Jury.

Mr. Beecher was before the Grand Jury to-day to testify in the Loeder and Price case. Mrs. Tilton will give evidence tomorrow.

Another Affidavit

from J. J. Price is published, giving alleged details of the method of getting up the Loeder accusation against Mr. Beecher. Price says Loeder instructed him what to say, and that lawyer Morris paid him at various times small sums of money to spend in liquors, cigars, etc. Price again declares that the affidavit signed by him in Morris' office is false in every particular. He was never in Tilton's house, and never to his knowledge saw Mrs. Tilton.

Moulton's Next Move.

It is asserted by the Brooklyn Argus that Moulton will endeavor to secure the indictment of Mr. Beecher by the Grand Jury now in session for alleged perjury, and will summon the following witnesses: Mrs. Stanton, Miss Anthony, Mrs. Bradshaw, Mrs. Moulton, Theodore Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. Richards, Henry C. Bowen, Mrs. Tilton and others.

Meeting of the Plymouth Society.

A largely attended meeting of the Plymouth Society, which is composed of pewholders of Plymouth church, was held in the lecture room of the church this evening, with Mr. J. B. Hutchinson in the chair. The Chairman stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of considering the question of raising Mr. Beecher's salary.

Mr. Henry W. Sage then offered a resolution, to the effect that the salary of the pastor for the ensuing year be fixed at $100,000, instead of $20,000, which it has heretofore been. This was seconded by R. W. Popes, after which R. W. Raymond made a lengthy address, in which he censured the action of the press very strongly. Reporters he characterized as a perfect nuisance, and said that they had all suffered by being interviewed by representatives of the press of the country. He related who had endeavored to interview Mrs. Beecher. That lady, he said, after being harassed for some time by questions of her inquisitor, asked him if he had a mother. The reporter replied that he had, and Mrs. Beecher asked him if she was not ashamed to have him engaged in such disreputable business. The young man, said the speaker, did not reply to this question, but took up his hat and left the house. The interview was not reported.

Mr. S. B. White then delivered a brief and pertinent address in favor of the passage of the resolution. He said that while the Investigating Committee were sitting Plymouth church had made no effort to influence them in any way, and so it had been all through the trial. They had made no move whatever towards influencing the jury or anybody else in Beecher's behalf. Their time had not come until to-night, and now, said the speaker, "we will show to the world that Plymouth church can spend millions in defense of her pastor's innocence, but not one dollar for blackmail or bribery."

The resolution was then put to a vote, and passed unanimously, there being not one dissenting voice. There were about four-fifths of the pewholders of the church present at the meeting, which was a very enthusiastic one. It is generally understood among the congregation that this enormous salary is only for this year, and is mainly intended to help to defray the expenses of the trial.

ST. LOUIS.

Outrages by Tramps—Fatal Affray on a Farm.

ST. LOUIS, July 7.—About five o'clock yesterday evening two German laborers visited the house of Mr. Geisler near Carsonville, about nine miles west of this city, and in a very rough manner demanded wine. Geisler produced some, which the men drank, and then asked for more, which was refused. Geisler also sent one of his children for Mr. Schulenberg, his son-in-law, who was working in a field. On Schulenberg's arrival at the house, he ordered the men to leave the place, which they refused to do, and assaulted and gave him a severe beating. Schulenberg's cries for help brought a man from a field to his assistance. After being released from his assailants he got a shot gun from the house and drove the men from the place. Not long after, however, the men returned and again attacked Schulenberg, one of them with a knife, whereupon Schulenberg seized a heavy hoe leaning against a fence and dealt the man a terrible blow on the head, inflicting a wound from which he died in a short time. This county and St. Clair county, opposite this city, in Illinois, seem to be full of riotous and blood-thirsty farm laborers. Scarcely a day passes that some outrage is not committed by them.

The Saloon Explosion in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., July 7.—The parties for whom writs were issued yesterday, charged with rioting, in attempting to destroy a saloon at Westerville, appeared in the Justice Court here to-day, accompanied by over two hundred friends, among them nearly one hundred ladies, who marched to the Court room in procession. The defendants were anxious to proceed to trial, but as the prosecutor declared he was not ready, the defendants waived an examination and were bound over to Court in the sum of $500. The people of Westerville are fierce in their denunciations of Corbin, the saloon man, and declare he placed the powder in his store which partly demolished his building on Monday night.

SUMMER SKETCHES.

Where Health and Pleasure Await the Wayworn and Weary.

The Charms of Cresson—Pittsburghers Sojourning at the Lovely Mountain Retreat—Random Notes by a Lively Correspondent—Murmurs from the Seashore—How Time Flies Down by the Ocean.

CRESSON, July 7, 1875.

A question of much significance naturally suggests itself about July 1st, to the American, invested with the average amount of patriotism and fondness for fun, viz.: How shall I spend the Fourth? It took but a few minutes for me to decide upon my line of action. I determined to hie to the mountains, so on Sunday morning I flitted on that renowned train, the Day Express of the Pennsylvania Railroad. We ran to Altoona without stopping, where I dined sumptuously with our genial host, Col. McClelland. At 2 P. M. I went up to Cresson.

Now, Mr. Editor, you may boast of the beauties of Saratoga, Bedford, White Sulphur and Long Branch. They are all worthy of praise, I confess, but for simple rustic beauty, Cresson surpasses them all in my estimation. In the 400 acres owned by the company, the exquisite collection of evergreens, the magnificent old deciduous trees, the beeches, the maple, the oaks with their glorious health of foliage, the symmetrical avenues, the picturesque cottages all tended to render the appearance of Cresson most charming. At present the air is redolent of newly cut grass, and wild flowers, and the woods are teaming with wild strawberries and raspberries In fact this spot presents a rare scene of silvan beauty. The hotel, though old and lacking in some essentials, is exceedingly neat, and is very well kept. The table is elegant and the appointments faultless. I notice that our old friend, Mr. Lyn, of Cape May, is at the head of the catering department. He is assisted by a corps of competent artists, the head cook being one of the best in the United States. Mr. G. W. Mullin is here, looking after the comfort of his guests; but I regret to have to say he will not be able to be present during the whole season. Since the death of his brother he has become the sole proprietor of the St. Cloud, Philadelphia. This fine hotel now claims his entire attention, and in view of the approaching Centennial celebration he has commenced extensive improvements. He intends adding, I believe, some forty rooms to its present capacity.

The Cresson House is now managed by Messrs. Geo. K. Mullen and Frank A. Barr. They are both experienced hotel men and are giving good satisfaction to their patrons. The additions to the hotel this year are, a new gentlemen's parlor, a barber shop and bath rooms, a large building 120x45 feet, two stories high, containing the ten-pin alley, children's play room, bar and billiard room. A capacious cemented tank, holding one thousand barrels, has been constructed near the splendid soft spring, and by the aid of a Knowle's steam pump, the purest water in the world is pumped to all parts of the grounds. The supply is inexhaustable.

The guests now here number about two hundred, which is the largest aggregate ever on hand at this time. In fact, the many beauties of Cresson are being more and more appreciated every year. Among those occupying cottages we noticed Wm. Thaw, Esq., and family, W. H. Barnes and family, Mrs. B. H. Painter, Mrs. D. E. Park, Mr. Fred. Leech, Mr. Jas. Laughlin and family, Mrs. Carnegie, Mrs. J. W. Chalfant and family, Mr. A. E. W. Painter and family, Mrs. S. Jones and family, Mr. John McCormick, of Harrisburg, etc. Among our prominent citizens at the hotel we noticed Dr. A. Fleming and wife, Chas. Hays and wife, O. H. Wharton, R. M. Gibson and wife, Dr. Howard, R. V. Messler, Howard Jones, Harry Darlington, George A. Cook, W. R. Brown, Wm. P. Schell, Jr., William L. Chalfant, R. M. Everson, and many others.

This, I believe, will be one of the most prosperous seasons in the history of Cresson. The price of board is not high, and the accommodations are good. There is no doubt but what the cheaper watering places will be well patronized this summer, owing to the condition of business.

We passed a delightful Fourth in the woods, drinking from the cool springs which abound, and occasionally diluting the water with—well, no matter what. The Pittsburgh boys enjoyed themselves hugely, and made the forest melodious with song. One gentleman, who is a fine delineator of Irish character, and who has a splendid brogue, could be heard at Ebensburg howling a refrain ending in the words: "Since Terrence jined the gang." This he repeated about a million times, much to the delight of the ladies. In the evening the display of fire works was very creditable, and attracted hundreds from all parts of the country.

We are enjoying pleasantly warm days and cool nights. Blankets are in demand.

I had the pleasure of meeting, yesterday, Mr. Franklin Platt, Assistant State Geologist, who is here with a party of engineers geologizing Cambria county. I find him an exceedingly agreeable, cultivated gentleman. I trust that you will be able during the heated term to visit us in our "Abode of bliss" vale. CAMBRIA.

Newport.

Notwithstanding the delightful weather, the cottagers do not arrive as promptly as they have been accustomed to do in years past. The Summer season is at least four weeks later than at the corresponding time last year, and the cool air has undoubtedly induced the usual visitors to remain at their city homes. Now that the warm weather has come, it is to be hoped that the visitors will make their appearance and gladden the hearts of the townspeople, who are anxiously awaiting their arrival upon the wharves and in the depots. Whether the visitors come early or late, it matters not so far as the lessees of the cottages are concerned, as the houses are let to the visitors for a stipulated price for the season. To the tradespeople, however, it is an important matter, and they are naturally agitated. From a careful inquiry among the leading storekeepers of the place, I learn that their customers are several weeks later in coming than last year, and in fact 175 families have not even informed the grocers when they are coming or when to be on hand to supply them with groceries. About 200 families have taken possession of their cottages and are quietly enjoying themselves.

A more grateful people cannot be found under the sun than the residents of this place are for the unusual heat which made its appearance so suddenly yesterday. Everybody is talking about it, and those who hope to gain any pecuniary benefit on account of the same are earnestly wishing that old Sol will continue to show his power, and thus drive those who have plenty of money to spend to this fashionable Summer resort.

The hotel-owners have not as yet let many of their rooms, but are hopeful of better luck. Were they to sell their houses and build near the beach their profits would be larger and hotel life would regain some of its former popularity. As it is now they are a great distance from the water, which, together with the mania for cottage-life, has caused the business to deteriorate.

The afternoon concerts at Fort Adams will be revived. This is considered one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season. In a few days the evening concerts in Touro Park and in the Mall will be resumed. Nearly every store in the large block owned by William R. Travers, of New York, one of the cottagers of the place, has been leased, a sure sign that the itinerant venders of Summer-notions believe that the season is to be a remunerative one.

The Old Colony Steamboat Company will run a Sunday night boat during the months of July and August for the benefit of the Summer residents.

The first private entertainment of the season took place at the Opera House a few evenings ago, for the benefit of the Newport Hospital. It was given under the auspices of the Bellevue Dramatic Club, whose membership is composed of visitors. The first play was Planche's vaudeville, "The Loan of a Lover," followed by the two-act comedy entitled "The Jacobite." Among the actors were Henry L. Bedlow, the proprietor of the famous "Malbone" place in this city; Miss Maud Howe, daughter of Mrs. Julia Ward Howe; Dr. S. G. Howe, S. R. Henry, Mrs. Wilson Eyre, and Mrs. George E. Waring, Jr., Col. G. E. Waring, Col. George W. Dresser, and E. A. Crocker. The receipts were large. The audience was made up of the cottagers, and everything passed off in a satisfactory manner. The Club will given other entertainments for charitable purposes during the season.

Commencing Monday the Light Battery at the Fort will give a first-class full-dress drill, and they will be continued during the season every Monday morning. Were they to be given in the afternoon they would be more numerously attended. Sunday the churches where the visitors do mostly congregate—Trinity, All Saints, and the United Congregational—have been well attended, a fact evinced by the large number of elegant carriages of every description, which we noticed in waiting outside. Well-dressed coachmen, with polished boots, knee breeches, stand-up Dickey fashionable fitting coats covered with large brass buttons, upon which were the monograms of the family represented, and the whole surmounted with a beaver and cockade, were the most important personages, while the owners or occupants of the carriages were inside the churches, learning the lesson of the vain pomp and glory of the world.

The bathing season will be in full blast next week. The bathing houses have been put in complete order and moved forward to the high water mark.

Cape May.

Returning to this famous watering-place yesterday, after an absence of seven years, I was surprised at first to notice so little change. It seemed the same snug, homelike town as of old, stretching no farther along the smooth, shining beach, and encroaching only a little more upon the breezy, green meadows. The Stockton House, the largest and finest of seaside hotels, had been built since my last visit, and two or three smaller houses; but I missed the United States with its many balconies, and the old Atlantic. Both perished in a fire five or six years ago. Congress Hall stretched its hospitable arms around its delightful lawn just as of old; the Columbia was unchanged, and so were a dozen other houses the names and appearance of which I readily recalled. Seen from the approaching train or from the beach, the outlines of the place had undergone no perceptible alteration. This morning, after walking through the pleasant, shady streets, to look for less striking features than new hotels, I found that the place had not been at such a stand-still as it appeared at first view. There are many more cottages, and the new ones are far handsomer than the old. They line all the available streets, in compact rows, with just elbow-room enough at their sides for a little grass and shrubbery. Grounds and buildings are more trimly kept than they used to be, and bespeak the ownership and careful attention of the people who make of them their Summer homes. As at all resorts upon the Jersey coast, cottage life at Cape May is evidently growing in favor every year. The golden age of big hotels was the time of the war and the few years preceding it, when money burned in the pockets of thousands of the nouveaux riches, and they were eager to assert its possession by showing their jewels and finery to watering-place crowds. The large houses of late, although better kept than ever, and offering more social attractions, barely hold their own and scarcely pay ordinary interest on the capital invested in them. The travel to the seashore increases every year, but the old hotels manage to supply all demands upon them. The increase of visitors comes chiefly from two classes—almost at the extremes of the social scale—the rich, many of whom own or rent cottages, and the poor who crowd the excursion trains leaving Philadelphia early in the morning, bring their lunch with them, have a glorious frolic in the surf and return home the same evening. Here, as at Atlantic City, provision is made by the railroad company for the comfort of this latter class in an excursion hotel, with porches that will protect from the sun 1,000 people, immense parlors and wash-rooms, and a large dining-room for those who have money to spare to buy a dinner. The cottagers come earlier than they used to. By the 1st of June most of them are installed, and they linger longer than the hotel guests. More and more they regard their places here as homes instead of temporary refuges from the Summer heat—a feeling that results in greater interest in the town's prosperity. The resident tradesmen find them better customers than the hotel guests, and the growth of their numbers is a pretty true gauge of the prosperity of business interests. About 300 cottages are occupied by Summer sojourners, and of these probably two-thirds by their owners. Since last season 24 cottages have been built.

Cape May used to be slow-going and conservative. Her citizens knew that they had by far the best beach for bathing on the whole Atlantic coast, and thought that people would come here without efforts on their part, but of late they have seen rival resorts with inferior attractions make much more rapid progress under the impulse of well-directed enterprise, and they have in consequence begun to see the wisdom of making known the advantages they possess already, and of constantly adding to them. Since last year a smooth dirt-road has been laid along the shore for a distance of a mile and a half, from the Mineral Spring to the Sea Breeze Hotel, bounded on the seaward side, where it passes the main part of the town by a wide plank walk, with a low board barrier to keep off the sand and spray. Those who are fond of beach driving, who know that the Cape May beach at a low tide is unequaled the world over for solidity, breadth, and level surface, will look on this artificial highway as a foolish attempt to rival nature's unapproachable boulevard; but they will themselves find it very convenient when the tides run high, and when they want to get more speed from their horses than the sand, hard-packed as it is, will permit. The long board-walk is an agreeable promenade and rendezvous, and a thoroughfare between the principal hotels fronting the water. Hot and cold salt water baths indoors have been put in handsome buildings erected for the purpose at Congress hall and the Atlantic Hotel.

A competent authority estimates the capacity of the principal hotels of Cape May as follows: Stockton House, 1,000 guests; Congress Hall, 1,000; Columbia House, 600; Ocean House, 400; Centre House, 350; Arctic, 350; Atlantic, 300; National Hall, 300; Merchants', 200; United States, 200; Deleware, 150; White Hall; 250; Sea Breeze (Excursion House), 100—can provide food for 1,000 persons; St Elmo, 75; American, 75. There are besides a number of smaller houses which each accommodate 40 or 50 persons, and about a dozen good boarding houses. Charges range from $4.50 a day at the Stockton House and Congress Hall, to $2 at the smaller houses, board by the week being obtainable at all prices from $10 to $28.

Cape May has now a handsome drive along the sea front of the city, which is said to excel any track at Newport or Long Branch. Less extravagance in dress is noticed among the ladies at the sea shore this season. Very few profusely trimmed suits are worn. Our ladies are now having a fashion of tying up their hair in oiled silk caps while bathing. Salt water sometimes causes the locks to assume a very harsh appearance.

Summer Resort Notes.

Virginia and West Virginia have a time-honored reputation for pleasant resorts, health-giving but bad smelling waters, and an invigorating atmosphere. The watering-places have gradually outgrown the scars of battle, and peace and quiet now reign supreme. The springs are mostly situated in the counties on the border line of the two States. Jordan's White Sulphur Springs, near Stephenson's Depot in Fredrick county; Orkney Springs, on the valley branch of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad; Shenandoah Alum Springs, three miles from Orkney, and Massanette and Rawley Springs in Rockingham County, are a few in Virginia proper. In West Virginia are the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs in Greenbrier County, the Berkeley Springs in Morgan County, the Capon Springs in Hampshire County, and the Sweet Springs in Monroe County. Besides these there are mountain resorts by the score in both States, and on the coast of Virginia Old Point Comfort, Cobb's Island, Cape Henry, and a few other places compare well with any of the seaside resorts for fine bathing and good living.

The Oceanic House, Isles of Shoals, is to be the rendezvous for the yacht men who are to participate in the ocean race on the 23d inst.

The following paragraph will doubtless have a quieting effect on a number of chronic grumblers: "Hotel men say the people who, at home, are unused to good living and luxuries, are the hardest to please at the table. Those accustomed to rich and dainty dishes make allowance for short-comings, but folks to whom delicacies and style are strangers are loudest in their demands and complaints."

The estate of Secretary Fish at Garrison's-on-the-Hudson has been considerably improved. The grounds are always open to visitors, who are shown about the place with great courtesy. Excursions into the Adirondacks have already begun. Several parties fitted out at Martin's, on the Lower Saranac, managed to reach the hunting grounds without a dipping, but all the passengers had to sit bolt upright in the boats and wink both eyes at once to avoid upsetting.

Kilbourn City, Wis., about thirty miles from Madison and eighty from Milwaukee, is one of the few favored places where there are no mosquitoes to torment a person, and no patent medicine posters to mar the wild beauty of the country. A sufficient idea of the kind of scenery which abounds there will be had when such names as Angel and Chimney Rock, Devil's Elbow, and Coldwater Canon are given to some of the principal points of interest.

A number of Belfast gentlemen have laid out a miniature city on a plot of land, 12 acres in extent, adjoining the Methodist Campmeeting ground at Newport, Me. This place is one of the most popular resorts on the Eastern Coast. With the Penobscot Bay at its feet, and its cool groves and beautiful shores, it has not many equals.

Mt. Airy, Surrey county, in the northwestern part of North Carolina, is blessed with a sulphur spring. This, with the natural beauty of the scenery round about, makes it a favorable resort for invalids.

Beaufort, North Carolina's favorite seaside resort, has a host of visitors, and the place is resuming its wonted air of prosperity and liveliness.

The people of Savanah, Ga., have made up their minds to be content with the pleasant places in the immediate vicinity of that city. Tybee Island, at the mouth of the Savannah river, has a new hotel, and a few wealthy gentlemen have erected costly cottages there as well as at Beach-Hammock, which is near by.

AT a meeting of the Mercer county Agricultural Society, held at Stoneboro, on Saturday, June 19, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: President—J. M. Carnahan, New Lebanon. Vice President—Allen P. Jones, Satterfield. Treasurer—Robert P. Cann, Stoneboro. Secretary—Samuel A. Wilson, Stoneboro. Board of Directors—J. C. Cornwell, C. W. Hummason, P. J. Boyd, J. Riggs, A. F. Brown, J. M. Galloway, A. Dunham. The society having purchased new grounds are vigorously at work preparing the same for a fair this season.

The Situation in Spain.

LONDON, July 7.—The Times to-day summarises the military and political situation in Spain, and gives a gloomy view of the Alfonsist cause. It says the recent minor successes of Jovellar have been out-weighed by reverses elsewhere. The Carlists seem about to give the forward march. All the bright hopes Alfonso brought to Spain have vanished, and his best Generals are less active than heretofore. They have met defeat instead of victory. The King has not been more successful in Madrid. He has failed to satisfy the Church and has enraged the liberals, hence the Ministry seems ready to try the effect of as much religious toleration as will permit Protestants to worship in the back streets, but such concession will disgust clericals and not satisfy Alfonso's political supporters. Neither has the King made peace between the warring factions. The press is muzzled, to prevent it being disloyal, and there are no funds to pay the army or navy.

Pigeon Shooting Match—An American Beats the Champion of England.

LONDON, July 7.—A pigeon shooting match between A. H. Bogardus, of Illinois, and George Rimmel, champion of England, took place to-day at Hendon, and was won easily by the former. The provisions of the match were that each should shoot at fifty birds, thirty yards rise, from five traps five yards apart. Bogardus killed 36 birds to his opponent's 30. A large crowd assembled to witness the contest, and much enthusiasm was evinced. Bogardus challenges all England to shoot against him.

Still Another Victory for the American Riflemen.

BELFAST, July 7.—The shooting for the cup presented by the Mayor and citizens of Belfast took place to-day. Col. Gildersleeve won the cup over twenty-four opponents.

The contest was held on the range on Lord Dufferin's grounds. The distance was 1,000 yards. Each man was allowed five shots, the highest possible score being twenty. Several thousand persons witnessed the shooting. All the members of the American team and the reserves took part. The contest was exciting, especially towards the close. The result was doubtful up to the last shot. The scores were announced, as follows: Gildersleeve, American, 19; Lee, of Belfast, 19; Fulton, American, 17; Johnson, of Dublin, 18; Bruce, American, 17; McKenna, of Dublin, 17; Wylie, 16.

The tie between America and Ireland was then shot off. According to the terms agreed upon the men had three shots apiece. The result was again a tie, Gildersleeve's and Lee's scores being exactly alike. Each made two bulls eyes and a centre, counting eleven. The excitement rose to fever beat. As they began to shoot off the second tie both men were cheered vociferously. The final result was a victory for Gildersleeve, who made three bulls eyes in succession, scoring 12. Lee made 10. The victorious American was wildly applauded by the excited spectators.

In the course of the shooting for the cup, Bodine, Dakin and Coleman, of the American team, made misses, and were obliged to retire, in accordance with a rule which requires the withdrawal of any man who misses the target. A considerable number of Irish competitors also retired under the rule, including Wilson, a crack shot.

The enthusiasm in Belfast for the Americans shows no signs of abatement. After the contest the members of the American team and friends, accompanied by the Mayor, Aldermen, and other leading citizens, made an excursion on Belfast Lough. The party were entertained at Clandeboye, Lord Dufferin's country residence. Captain Hamilton, a brother of Lady Dufferin, expressed his pleasure in receiving the gentlemen of the American team.

A Banquet

was given at the town hall to-night in honor of the Americans. The Mayor occupied the chair. The company numbered 200, and included the first people of Belfast and twenty officers of the British army. Among the latter was Lord John Taylour, Lieutenant Colonel of the 94th Foot. The Mayor offered a toast to the army and navy of the United States. Gen. Dakin responded. Col. Gildersleeve, Mr. Mitchell, Major Leech and Col. Fulton also replied to toasts. The Mayor gave as a final toast "The next merry meeting," and in his closing remarks alluded to the meeting held in this very hall to raise aid for the people of Chicago after the great fire.

Parliamentary Proceedings.

LONDON, July 7.—In the House of Commons this evening John Bright presented a petition signed by sixty thousand members of the Agricultural Laborers' Union and others, asking for the extension of household suffrage to counties and boroughs and for a redistribution of parliamentary seats.

Mr. Trevelyan moved a second reading of the household franchise or counties bill.

Rt. Hon. W. E. Forster supported the bill. The principle involved had already been decided upon its merits by all parties. The proposed measure was one of such pure justice that its eventual passage was inevitable. He quoted former utterances of Disraeli favorable to it.

Henry Fawcett said the agricultural laborers had been neglected in regard to education and other things, because they had not been enfranchised. The House would ultimately be obliged to concede the demands of an indignant people. The speaking on the other side pointed to a large majority against the bill in the last session, and urged that the measure was inopportune.

The House divided, and the motion for a second reading of the bill was lost by a vote of 166 yeas to 268 nays.

FRANCE.

Assembly Proceedings.

PARIS, July 7.—In the Assembly to-day the Public Powers bill was debated. M. Marcou, Radical, moved an amendment in favor of making future Assemblies permanent.

Minister Buffet thereupon made an important speech. He defended the Republican Constitution of February 20th. The proposed amendment was in every way a violation of that instrument. No comparison was possible between French and American or English executives. He concluded as follows: "Prudence requires us to seek a guarantee against coups d'etat. We shall find such not in a clause of a Constitution, but in the establishment of a Government in harmony with the traditions, character and wants of the country. A permanent Assembly would be a constant focus of agitation, causing public opinion to turn to the side of executive power. Permanency would be the most detestable gift possible to bestow upon the Assembly. If Assemblies remain faithful to public opinion, the executive power will respect them."

This speech obtained for the Ministry the support of the Left, and M. Marcou's amendment was rejected.

An amendment proposed by the Committee of Thirty, empowering a third, instead of half, of the deputies to demand a special convocation of the chambers was withdrawn.

M. Kerdrel announced that the Moderate Right would support an amendment providing that if the Presidency should become vacant while the chambers are dissolved, the Senate shall meet and general elections be immediately held. The amendment was adopted.

The Assembly then decided to pass the bill to a third reading by a vote of 546 yeas to 87 nays. The result is believed to be an indication that the majority are determined not to delay the hour of dissolution.

SPAIN.

Gen. Dorregaray's Movements.

MADRID, July 7.—General Dorregaray, with fourteen battalions, comprising almost all the Carlist force in Valencia and Aragon, has rapidly crossed the Husea and Lerida railway, between the stations of Tradienta and Silqua, and retreated in the direction of Barbartro. It is believed he is going to Urgel, but as he lacks cavalry to operate in that district, which is free of mountains and full of Liberals, it will be impossible for him to remain there. The Carlists traversed ninety kilometres in one day. Their flight liberates four provinces.

Carlists Defeated.

MADRID, July 7.—Gen. Dorregaray has met with a repulse at Barbastro, and has turned in his retreat toward Sierra Guara. The Alfonsist troops are in close pursuit.

Gen. Jovellar officially announces the capture, by the forces under his command, of Canta Vieja, with its artillery and entire garrison, 2,000 strong.

ITALY.

No Representation at the Philadelphia Exhibition.

ROME, July 7.—The Opinione announces that the ministerial commission appointed to consider whether Italy shall participate in the Philadelphia Centennial Exhibition has decided in the negative, on account of the considerable expense necessary. The Washington Government has been so informed.

TURKEY.

Insurrection in Herzegovina.

LONDON, July 8—5:30 A. M.—A dispatch reports that an insurrection has broken out against the Turks in Herzegovina. The women, children and old men have been sent to Dalmatia for safety. Turkish troops are marching against the insurgents. Austria has sent five battalions of infantry to Mekorrch, on the frontier of Herzegovina.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 7, 1875.

The Colored People's Celebration of the "Fourth."

At the colored people's celebration of the 4th at Hillsdale, near this city, Prof. Langston said he was there to declare his independence for all who were his followers. The hour is come when we must throw off this yoke of oppression and stand up for civil rights as free men. The signs of the times demand that we shall prove our fitness for all the duties of citizenship. The hour is come when we must manage our own institutions. If we have colored churches, then give us colored preachers; if we have colored banks, we must have colored bankers; if we have colored schools, let us have our own teachers; if we have colored colleges, we demand that we have our own officers. We have played the second fiddle too long. We want—we must have a change for the better.

Preparing to Resume Specie Payments.

Under the act of July 18th, 1874, providing for the resumption of specie payments, the Treasury Department has disposed of about ten millions of bonds, known as five per cents, authorized by the act of July 14th, 1870, and with the proceeds has purchased about nine million in silver for the purpose of retiring fractional currency.

Appointments.

Wm. Hawkins, Leander Smith and Henry A. Buesing have been appointed Internal Revenue Storekeepers for the First District of Missouri, and Wm. H. Thompson for the Eleventh Indiana District. F. P. Tumridge is appointed Gauger for the Fifth Missouri, and Jno. T. Powell for the First Missouri.

THE CROPS.

The Prospect in Iowa.

BURLINGTON, July 7.—In the northern part of this county, a hall storm early in the week severely injured the oats and wheat, ruining in some cases half the crop. Corn is only damaged by growing weeds, which cannot be destroyed, owing to the wet weather.

MT. PLEASANT, July 7.—Oats is somewhat injured and down. Corn in some localities gives a good yield, and in others ra n interfered and prevented sufficient cultivation. A fair crop is expected.

OTTUMWA, July 7.—Corn will be half a crop. Wheat is badly damaged. About three-quarters of a crop is expected, if rain does not injure it.

Reports from West Union state that the crops are in good condition, except corn, which is poor.

CRESTON, July 7.—About five and a half inches of water fell in four days. No material damage was done to corn. Wheat and oats are in good condition.

INDEPENDENCE, July 7.—Corn is badly damaged by weeds and the ground is too wet to cultivate.

The above reports are a fair sample of the condition of the crops throughout Southwestern and Northwestern Iowa.

A Bank Robber Captured.

PLYMOUTH, N. H., July 7.—Two of the robbers who attempted to plunder the Bank of Barre, Vermont, last night, took the train at Rumney, but seeing detectives on board, one of them became frightened and jumped off. The train was stopped and run back. After an extended search the man was found half a mile from where he jumped of. He was badly cut and bruised, and had concealed himself in rushes. He was handcuffed, and taken to Rumney. While the detectives and others were looking for him, his partner walked into the woods and disappeared. A general search is being made, and it is not thought that he can escape.

Business Suspensions in Connecticut.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., July 7.—The suspension is announced of the firm of Tyler, Frost & Co., wholesale grocers and dealers in liquors. The liabilities are between $150,000 and $200,000; and of W. H. THE EXPOSITION.

The Contract for the Building Let—The Work to be Completed by September.

Yesterday morning the committee having the matter in charge, opened the bids for the erection of the proposed buildings for the Industrial Institute. There were two plans to bid on. The first was the Butz plan, as modified, and the second a plan prepared by Mr. Wm. Criswell. The bids were as follows:

Cochran & Gilleland, (Allegheny)—
On Butz's plan	$53,000
On Criswell plan	48,000
With iron roof (exra)	1,000
J. L. McKain—
Butz plan	57,736
Wm. Boyd & Son—
Butz plan, (iron roof)	56,416
Criswell plan, (iron roof)	50,096
Frazier Bros., Allegheny—
Butz plan, (iron roof)	49,750
Criswell plan, (iron roof)	48,500
J. B. Chambers & Bros.—
Butz plan, (gravel roof)	65,500
Criswell	62,000

Besides the above Messrs. W. J. McMasters submitted a plan of their own and a bid of their own, amounting to $40,000.

The committee awarded the contract to Messrs Frazier Bros., at $49,750. They are to have the building finished in all of its particulars within sixty days, or by September 10th, as the managers are desirous of having the building opened on the 17th, in time for the reunion of the Army of the Potomac, which is to be held in this city at that time.

The building will be erected on the site selected, fronting on South avenue, between School street and Grant avenue. It will consist of a substantial frame, 150x600 feet, and will be built up on piles, 432 in number, which will cost alone $2,000. The height will be forty-seven feet from the first floor to the bottom of the truss. The Butz plan on which it is to be erected is a modified form from that of the Criswell plan, first submitted to the managers. The contractors will use some of the modifications presented in the latter plan regarding the frame work. The roof is to be of corrugated iron. The modified plan is not as ornate as the original one, but it is very suitable for the purpose, and will make a very pretty and neat building.

THE reception which Messrs. Moody and Sankey shall meet with in Paris will be looked for with some interest, not to say anxiety. The population there is of a very different sort from that of London or Liverpool.

A FRIEND, whose modesty will not permit us to name him, has presented us with five copies of the GAZETTE, issued respectively in April, May, June and December, 1824. He has our thanks for his kindness and attention.

THE latest railroad accident is on Long Island, whereat a dozen or more were killed or mangled, through gross carelessness. Swift punishment for negligence, should follow all such cases, and then the public might ride in less danger.

THE Shrievalty Convention meets today at the Court House. We hope harmony and good order will prevail, and that a good Republican, capable of filling the office, will be placed in nomination. We trust all the delegates will attend, as an important duty to the party devolves upon them.

AMERICA wins again. In the pigeon shooting match between A. H. Bogardus, of Illinois, and George Rimmel, the champion of England, at Hendon, on Wednesday, our countryman won easily, killing thirty-six birds to the Englishman's thirty. And now Bogardus challenges all England to shoot against him. The London Standard has, in this, another opportunity for more ill-natured remarks concerning America.

THE growing jealousy of English statesmen toward Russia, on account of the progress made by the latter through Central Asia, toward England's wealthy protege—India—finds some expression now and then in Parliament, by way of a note of warning. The ultimate designs of Russia in that direction are evidently feared, and it is possible that the proposed trip of the Prince of Wales to India has some bearing on the steps thought necessary to be taken to counteract the movements of the great Northern bear.

THE ugly exhibition of bad temper shown by the London Standard over the celebration in England of the Fourth of July, is but the narrow sentiment of jealousy held there by some small minds, and now and then finds vent in the newspapers. Its criticism of Dean Stanley's eulogy of Washington, and of the American nationality, is very indecorous and contemptible, and does not reflect the views of any considerable number of the English people. It is, therefore, not to be given any weight. Contrasted with the patriotic and liberal speech of Minister Schenck on the occasion mentioned, its malignity is all the more apparent.

THE good people of Westerville, Ohio, not content, evidently, with the plan of the crusaders in stopping the liquor traffic, have resorted to a rather summary way of closing out a saloon in that town. They adopted the waggish method of blowing the building, whisky and all, to atoms, by means of powder and fuse. They succeeded in shaking up things tolerably, lifting the roof and blowing out the windows. Warrants have been issued against all the ministers of the Gospel in the town, the postmaster and four other citizens, charging them with the inauguration of the new crusade. The method adopted was prompt and effective, if not exactly safe and of the moral suasion order.

WE question the wisdom of closing up our public schools for even so short a period as one month, to provide for a deficiency in the revenue for school purposes. Other remedies might have been resorted to rather than the one adopted. Music, with some of the other extras, might have been dropped for awhile, if necessary, or the money needed might have been temporarily provided, if the levy for school purposes should prove insufficient, or economy in some particular might have been resorted to, rather than close the schools for a whole month, turning the scholars loose for one-fourth of a year. The action of the Allegheny School Board, we hope, will in this matter be re-considered, and some better plan be adopted.

NOW, THAT the Allegheny authorities have decided to make the necessary lease to the Tradesmen's Industrial Institute, we presume the contractor who has been awarded the job, will go to work vigorously in the erection of its buildings, on South avenue, and prepare the way for a fine exhibition this Fall of the products and manufactures of the country. We hope to find every encouragement extended by our people to this enterprise, as its success must add largely to our trade in the Fall, and in many ways increase the prosperity of every branch of business. The great success attending similar exhibitions in Cincinnati, St. Louis, Chicago, Louisville, and elsewhere, gives promise of good results here, in every way, from the show of the Institute this Autumn.

FROM the Lord Mayor of Dublin down to the humblest citizen, all Ireland appears to engage heartily in the effort to do honor to the American "team" of riflemen which lately won the prizes for markmanship. This "team" of ours is not exactly composed of the material usually found in Metropolitan sporting circles, but is made up mainly from the very best and most honored of our people. Governor Hawley is a prominent member of the club, and would have accompanied it as its president, and one of its best shots, had not an accident prevented. The leaders of the celebrated "team," Colonel Gildersleeve and General Dakin, were both brave soldiers, and are educated gentlemen. The others are equally to be respected, and we are proud to read of the distinction with which they are welcomed abroad.

THE annual report of the Commissioners of the city of New York for the year 1868 shows the debt to have been $52,000,000; and by the last report—that of January 1st, 1875,—it is found to be no less than $139,000,000. In the year 1865 the tax levy was $17,000,000; this year it is $34,000,000. In the four years of Tammany rule, from 1868 to 1871, the taxes levied aggregated $91,000,000, of which sum Tweed and his Democratic co-laborers stole $20,000,000. In 1869 the interest on the city debt was $2,805,000, and in 1875 it has increased under Democratic reform rule to $9,300,000. The extravagance and mismanagement continue, and are far worse than when Tweed had full power. Sweeney testified that the greater portion of the stealings under Tweed's administration went to carry on the Democratic party and elect its ticket, in fact, was expended among the faithful in one way or another, mainly by hiring repeaters and paying for fraudulent counting of returns. It might be well to inquire whether this system is kept up still by the successors of Tweed; and whether it is to this fact that the indebtedness of the city grows at such an enormous pace. Few persons would have imagined the annual expense of running New York to be greater now than under Tweed, or that the debt and annual tax levy, the interest, to say nothing of extravagance of the present Democratic management, run away ahead of the Boss's figures; but we have published the facts as they appear on record.

THE reports of fighting and army movements in Spain are colored very much by the sources from which they emanate. The King's forces are always ahead in the news from Madrid; whilst the Carlists are about accomplishing some successful movement, or have just defeated the Government troops, when we have reports from the Insurgent Junta. The latest rumors from the latter source are to the effect that the Carlists are moving successfully, having defeated eight thousand Alphonsists, and Don Carlos at the head of his army is making a determined general advance on the forces of the Crown. Reports of some desertions among the King's officers to the Insurgent army are confirmed. The important city of Moline de Rey, with its fortress, has surrendered to the Carlists, and altogether their cause looks prosperous.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY is at last recognized formally in Spain, by the new Constitution presented for ratification by the Commission raised for that purpose. Under this instrument, if it shall be adopted as reported, the Government will consist of a Legislature composed of a Senate and Chamber of Deputies, and in all other respects have the form and essence of a limited Monarchy. If this liberal Constitution shall be adopted without modification, as is now thought probable, it will place Spain in a better light before the nations of the world, and add largely to the moral support she so much needs. One other step—the abolition of slavery within all the territory controlled by her—will prove the crowning glory of her statesmen and shed lustre on the reign of Alphonso, which will fully establish him as a wise, Christian ruler.

THE great falling off in our leading importations during the past year is shown by the following carefully prepared table:

	Importations, 9 mos. 1874.	Importations, 9 mos. 1875.
Pig iron	$2,737,068	$932,034
Bar iron	2,375,881	1,292,200
Scrap iron	1,258,219	696,049
Machinery	1,080,592	489,149
Steel ingots, bars and wire	2,494,440	1,958,350
Iron rails	721,351	24,381
Steel rails	6,529,695	2,320,085
Band, hoop, and scroll iron	140,639	23,111
Files	466,525	292,485
Firearms	761,414	515,304
Other manufactures of iron and steel	5,002,147	3,495,824

This is a remarkable showing, and furnishes matter for a volume of thought. Besides this, in articles of less prominence, we find a corresponding reduction in importations. India rubber goods have fallen off forty per cent.; jewelry fifty per cent.; opium, of which we imported $1,782,862 worth in the preceding nine months, in the last nine we took only in value $1,420,000. Sugars have fallen off over six millions, and salt a half million. In printing paper the decline has been remarkable, from $253,672 last year to less than $21,000 this year. And so on, in leaf tobacco, spirits, lumber, carpets, and many other goods a similar falling off is found. In boards and plank alone we have imported a million dollars' worth less than last year, in carpets $800,000 worth, and in dress goods but half a million less, on a total importation of seventeen millions.

We find a small increase in some articles such as leather, jute, cotton goods, chemicals, drugs and medicines. Olive oil, paints, perfumery and cosmetics, and other luxuries have increased in a small way; but the importation of diamonds has increased over a million dollars' worth last year. Figures make strange developments. Who would have thought of this country, just now, increasing the purchases of such costly luxuries as diamonds and precious stones? Dress silks, too, have increased over two millions in the last year, and now exceed the importation of any other single fabric with but two exceptions. Manufactured wool has increased $3,000,000 worth also. The net result shows as follows: Gross importation for 1875, first nine months, $399,500,000, as against $413,500,000 in 1874.

ANTI-TREATING.

We can conceive of much good growing out of the establishment of the organizations of our young men known as Anti-Treating Societies, and upon the whole we are inclined to encourage them. While it would be better to abstain from intoxicating drinks altogether, yet we think a long step will be taken toward the complete breaking up of drunkenness by a rigid adherence to the rules of these clubs. The habit of strong drink is a slow but sure one; but the facilities offered its growth are greatly induced and hurried, through the pernicious American system of treating. We say "American system," for we believe no where else does this unreasonably foolish custom prevail. A man will not acquire the habit of drink, so that drink with him will become compulsory, near so fast, if allowed to drink just when he feels inclined, and as much, and no more than he feels is good for him. But through this worse than foolish—yes sinful—custom many a young man is lead on faster than he otherwise would go, toward binding around himself the chains of this demon of strong drink.

And yet another view of this subject commends it to our judgment. Many a young man would avoid a saloon entirely if compelled to enter and drink alone, for most of them when first struck with the idea of drinking strong liquors only yield with a view of being in fashion, and because others do so. There is a ludicrous phase of this subject that will strike any one upon reflection. A man does not insist upon his friend accepting a pocket knife, or a plug of tobacco, or even, oftentimes, a cigar, every time he feels like purchasing one for himself. He does not urge his bosom companion to swallow a dose of salts when he feels that he needs such a potion for his own stomach; nor, in the purchase of his marketing, does he usually call after him all the acquaintances he meets on the way to the market house, and insist upon filling their baskets with berries or beef; and yet, oftentimes, he will urge these same friends to swallow whiskey of his purchasing, which proves before they part to be more expensive than the beef, or the berries, or both.

Now, why is this? Why does the average drinking American seek out some croney to take a drink with him, and, after swallowing this drink, is it any wonder that common courtesy would suggest to the croney that his turn to treat comes next? So it goes. A. meets B., and insists upon his "taking a smile" with him; notwithstanding B.'s stomach may be disgusted with the stuff poured into it, he goes, because he knows, to refuse would be to offer an insult to his friend A. They mutually "smile,"—then "smile" again, at B.'s expense, of course. Prudence begins to dictate to B., say, that he has had enough, and ought to quit and go home—perhaps lie down. He starts, but at the door meets C and D, boon companions, just coming in to "take a drink." He must join them, of course. A refusal will not be taken, although he pleads that he is not well, and has had enough, and ought to be off about his business. It won't do; he must join them "just once." He goes; and he does not like to offend,—he drinks once, twice, perhaps oftener; and then rises to go, but finds that impossible. He is unable to walk straight; he therefore reels out into the street, and is perhaps disgraced by being seen in that condition, or more likely awakens from a drunken slumber to find himself in the tombs.

This picture is not exaggerated in the least; it is daily, hourly exemplified here and everywhere that liquors are sold; and it is this nefarious, foolish, criminal custom which is to a great extent leading off our young men, and which the present effort is intended to break up, by making it unpopular. We say, then, while we insist that the only safe way is to avoid drinking intoxicating liquors altogether, yet we consider the effort to establish these Anti-Treating clubs as a move in the right direction, and one which, if radically lived up to, will exert a wholesome influence and be the means of doing a great deal of good. We hope it will receive the support of every drinking man in the community, and all who do not have the habit too; and if it shall, in a measure, break up or render unpopular or unfashionable the system of treating to drinks of liquors among our young men, a great good will be accomplished, which will not stop with this reform, we are quite sure.

A NUT for free-traders to crack. Sugar from the beet that has become so abundant in England the sugar refiners have protested against the further free introduction of the article into that country.

THEY have a good, old-fashioned Jacksonian Democratic government in Franklin county, Ohio. The Commissioners' report reads: "Whisky for the poor farm, $56.50; bread for the poor farm, $16.35."

MR. IGNATIUS DONNELLY is disturbed because "The agricultural State of Minnesota is represented in the United States Senate by a couple of lawyers, who scarcely know the difference between potatoes and turnips growing."

THE Iowa City Republican says: "The Rev. Mr. Ingalls, in his address last Sunday before the Band of Hope, said he had withdrawn from the Republican party because a Republican State Senator (Cooley, of Dubuque,) had defeated a temperance bill presented to the Legislature last winter." Upon which the Muscatine Journal observes that, in order to be consistent, Mr. Ingalls should withdraw from the Methodist Church also, because Senator Cooley is a Methodist. And the point is very well taken.

THE state of Father Tom Burke's health is such that all hope of his being able to preach the sermon at the grand high mass in the Cathedral of Dublin on the occasion of the O'Connell centenary has had to be abandoned.

QUEEN ISABELLA, accompanied by her three daughters, and attended by two ladies of honor and two gentlemen on service, recently visited Mme. la Marechale de MacMahon at Versailles. The august company dined at the Hotel des Reservoirs.

P. FRASER SMITH, ESQ., has been reappointed by the Governor to the office of State Reporter of the Supreme Court. This is Mr. Smith's third appointment, and the fact of his being unanimously recommended this time by the Supreme Court officials and the State bar generally speaks well.

IT sounds anomalous to hear of a lady Bachelor of Arts, but that is what three female students at Girton College for Women, at Cambridge, England, have shown themselves entitled to be called. They passed in papers of general examinations for the decree of A. B. possessed of such merit as to qualify them for first class. Their names are Miss Eliza Baker of Bristol, Miss Alice Barbara Beltham, niece of Miss M. Beltham Edwards, novelist, and Miss Annie Salina Wallis, daughter of the Rev. J. Wallis, of Brixton.

WHILE attending church at Portland, Me., on a recent evening, Miss Annie Louise Cary went into the choir and assumed the soprano part, which ran quite low in the closing hymn. When the congregation passed out, commenting on the glorious voice of the unknown singer, a lady who prides herself on her musical taste said in answer to the question of a friend: "I think it is one of that —— street choir. She has a pretty good voice, but it lacks cultivation sadly." And now the prima donna's friends are urging her to supply that lack during her forthcoming visit to Europe.

HARK! from the Toombs a doleful sound! In reply to celebrate the Fourth at Atlanta, Ga., ex-Senator, ex-Rebel Bob Toombs shouts: "No, sir. I cannot shake hands with those who dug it and filled it with the bloody corpses of the brave and the true, over the bloody chasm which engulfs also the principles of '76. I want no fraternity with States or people without liberty and equality." Poor old man! Pity, but do not blame him! Think of his disappointment. He was confident, you remember, in those fiery, early days of the rebellion, that he should soon call the roll of his slaves on Bunker Hill, and where—oh, where are they now?—Boston Globe.

Her hand, arms and body became successively affected so seriously as to end in death, although her throat showed no symptoms of diphtheria.

A SINGULAR CASE was on trial in Brooklyn last week. The plaintiff brings an action for the recovery of a deed given to secure a lawyer's bill. The story of the plaintiff (a female) is that the lawyer gained a suit for her, and demanded twelve hundred dollars, alleging, as she says, that of this three hundred and fifty dollars were for the Judge, three hundred and fifty for the jury, two hundred and fifty for the County Clerk and the same amount for himself. The lady must have had advanced ideas of Brooklyn justice or she would not have paid the bill.

SUMMARY OF THE TRIAL.

Thus, when a barber and a collier fight,
The barber beats the luckless collier white;
The dusty collier heaves his ponderous sack,
And, big with vengeance, beats the barber black;
In comes the brickdust-man, with grime o'erspread,
And beats the collier and the barber red.
Black, red and white in various clouds are tost,
And in the dust they raise the combatants are lost!

QUEEN VICTORIA.

An Oriental Prince's Tribute to Her Majesty.

On the 21st ult. the Sultan of Zanzibar was presented to Queen Victoria, at Windsor Castle. A correspondent gives the following as the Sultan's impression of his visit: He said, "I have now seen with my eyes what I have so long desired to see, her Majesty the Queen of England. My father, who has been taken to the mercy of the Merciful, used often to talk to us of the Queen Victoria, but he died without seeing her. I now tell you why I have so often said that it was the summit of my ambition to see the face of her Majesty. It was this: I have met many Englishmen in my time, not only of the Royal navy and army, but also civilians, merchants and travelers, and I wondered why they all spoke of their Sovereign, not in the formal way as did the people of other nations, but with enthusiasm and affection. This made me mentally to liken her to that mountain of loadstone mentioned in the "Thousand and One Nights," which drew the nails out of the sides of the ships which passed that way. Even so did the hearts of the Englishmen I have hitherto met seem to be drawn as by a magnet to her Majesty. I come to England and find the same hearty loyalty pervading all classes. You saw the thousands the other evening at the Crystal Palace all stand up of their own accord from affection to her. And no wonder; for verily she is the center of all the glory, all the greatness, all the prosperity of this Grand Empire. And she is a woman! Praise be to the Sovereign Creator who endows whom He will with fitness to rule and with qualities to attract loyalty and affection! I fancied that I should have been overwhelmed when I had the high honor of seeing the face of the Queen. I was, indeed, wonderstruck with all the sumptuousness which surrounded her, but hers is the simple majesty which captivates, not that which bewilders. Nevertheless, she was majestic in simplicity, and my heart wept for her when I saw the two princesses, her Royal daughters, by her side, and remembered that her beloved Consort had been taken to the mercy of God. May that great God bless her and her Royal offspring, and the mighty people over whom she rules. I can say no more, for words fail me to express what my heart feels. A thousand times I say, God bless her."

THE FATAL UNDERTOW.

Three Persons Drowned at Rockaway Beach.

A sad drowning accident, by which three persons lost their lives, occurred yesterday, near the Seaside Hotel, at Rockaway Beach. At four o'clock in the afternoon, when the fatal calamity occurred, the surf was alive with bathers. Suddenly a wave of great size and strength swept toward the beach, and, when it receded, carried with it William F. Goodhill, aged 22 years, of No. 44 Grand street, Brooklyn; John Gusman, aged 24 years, of Second street, New York; Lena Ritz, 20 years of age, of No. 275 Mulberry street, and Arthur Lloyd, residing at No. 88 Forsyth street. Lloyd was an expert swimmer, and succeeded in reaching the beach. The others were carried out by the undertow and drowned. Several persons endeavored to recue the unfortunate people, but their efforts were rendered futile by the heavy surf.—New York Herald, 6th.

A Danbury Occupation.

Knocking worm nests from apple trees is a common occupation at present. In impetuously removing a nest from a tree on Spring street, yesterday, two of the worms fell outside the nest, and went down the neck of the woman who was watching the operation. She emitted a piercing scream and went plunging under the trees uttering shriek after shriek. The husband, knowing nothing of the cause of the outbreak, very discreetly took to the cellar and crawled back of a cider-vinegar barrel to wait for the disappearance of what he firmly believed to be a serious attack of insanity. The unfortunate woman pranced and screamed until she brought together some sixty-five neighbors of her own sex, who were determined to afford her immediate relief until they learned what was the matter, when they precipitately retired outside the fence, but showed there was no abatement of their sympathy by asking her, individually and unitedly, why she didn't take the dreadful things out. At this juncture Mr. Rouse, the baker, drove by, and he soon restored peace with the aid of two of the more courageous neighbors. The husband now unexpectedly appeared from the cellar, and explained his course by saying that he had on his best coat and was afraid she would tear it in her frenzy.

A French Catholic Bishop Skeptical.

It appears that the Bishop of Verdun is of the opinion that we have had a sufficient number of appearances of the Holy Virgin. An apparition was reported to have taken place in May at Cheppy, and it was followed by the usual miraculous cures; but the Bishop has abruptly interfered, sending the following note to the papers: 1st. The apparition of the Virgin has by no means been proved. 2d. The miraculous cures are pure invention. 3d. The clergy, far from encouraging these manifestations, have done all in their power to enlighten the people and fortify them against a blind credulity. You will remark that the Bishop of Verdun in Art. I. simply pronounces a verdict of "not proven;" being mindful, perhaps, of what happened in the case of Monsignor De Bonald, who, when the miracle of La Salette was first noised abroad, condemned it in the most decided manner as an imposture. But those who desired to be deluded were stronger than the Archbishop of Lyons and his priests, and the miracle prevailed. The people of Grenoble were determined to see in Mdlle. Lamerliere the Virgin Mary, and the miraculous apparition became a matter of faith.

The Postal Service.

The Postmaster General has concluded to re-organize the Special Agency Service in his department in a manner similar to the recent organization of the Railway Postal Service. The entire country will be divided into four or five grand divisions with local chiefs. A number of the agents who, it is expected, will be appointed to these positions, have already arrived in Washington. U. R. Hawley, of Chicago, will, doubtless, be appointed to be the chief of the Northwestern Division, and Captain Shordy, of St. Louis, to that of the Southwestern. Supervising Agent Woodward will retain the general charge of the entire service. The Postmaster General contemplates making an official tour of New England in August, and of the South in November. This will have the same general purpose as his recent western tour.

I have invented a plan whereby Railroad Cars can be coupled and uncoupled, and the link set at desired angle, without requiring any person to go between the cars to accomplish it.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, July 8, 1875.

Dividend day for most of our banks and loaning institutions is at hand, and a more prompt response is made than was looked for by some stockholders. The dividends so far declared are not quite so large as has been usual during the past few years, but on the whole are encouraging, as they exhibit a healthy and sound condition. More or less slow, and some really worthless paper, must occasionally be picked up, and it is at all times good policy to make allowance for such in reckoning profits for the purpose of declaring dividends. Then some of the banks are intent on increasing their surplus funds, at such times as we are now passing through, in order to make up for squally weather ahead, if such should come. This is wise, and goes to show that a reduction in the amount of dividend, must not, at all times, be taken for an exhibit of reduced profits. On the whole, our money market is healthy, and the banks are prepared to discount liberally, first-class paper meeting with no difficulty. As trade revives, good offerings will increase, and at the end of the next six months, perhaps, a better showing will be made.

NEW YORK, July 7, 1875.

Money was easy at 2a2½; prime mercantile paper 3½a5. Sterling was steady at 486½a487 for sixty days and 489½a490 for sight. The customs receipts were $377,000. Gold opened at 117, advanced to 117⅛, and closed weak at 116⅞. The carrying rates were 1a2½. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $538,000. The clearings were $26,000,000. The afternoon decline in gold was based on the following dispatch from Washington:

"Secretary Bristow claims the right, under the provision of the specie resumption act, to increase the bonded debt to any amount necessary to carry out the requirements of that act. He says he has already sold five per cent. bonds in the purchase of silver bullion and for coin. The amount thus disposed of will probably reach to between ten and eleven millions. The Treasury now holds between ten and eleven millions in silver bullion and silver coin. One million silver bullion was purchased on Saturday."

Governments are firm. Railroad bonds are quiet. State securities are quiet, except Tennessees, which are better.

Stocks were buoyant and higher throughout the day, and the highest quotations in some cases were made in final dealings. Western Union was the leading feature, rising from 80 to 81½, and closing at 81¼a81½. Pacific Mail was also conspicuous, and advanced from 40½ to 42, closing at 41⅝. The rise in this stock was based partly on a report that the company was about closing negotiations for the sale of some of its wooden sidewheel steamers for $1,300,000 gold, an amount that would place the company in a very easy financial condition. Lake Shore advanced from 59½ to 60½, with the last sales at 60⅜. The increased strength in Lake Shore is partly the result of an advance in passenger fares from the East to the West. The other Western shares were strong, Northwest rising to 39½ for common and 50½ for preferred, St. Paul to 34½ for common and 57½ for preferred, and Rock Island to 104. Union Pacific was firm, and advanced to 75½, closing at 75⅛a75½. Ohios advanced to 23½, and Hannibal & St. Joseph common to 24. Erie was quiet at 15a15½. During the afternoon there was a considerable activity in Mariposa stock. The general market closed strong and with a tendency to higher prices.

The transactions at the Stock Exchange aggregated 144,000 shares, of which 35,000 were Pacific Mail, 46,000 Western Union, 5,000 Northwest, and 37,000 Lake Shore.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, July 7, 1875.

Trade continues very dull and unsatisfactory, and while operators are hopeful of an early change for the better, the prospects at this writing are not encouraging. As compared with yesterday, prices have still further declined. Crude for immediate shipment was offered this P. M., at $1,22½, the lowest point it has reached for some time. Refined also weak and lower; 11¾ best bid, deliverable in Baltimore or Philadelphia, equal to about 9¾ on cars here. There are few if any sellers at quoted rates.

The Barrel trade continues quiet and unchanged: countries, $1,10 to $1,15; city make, $1,30.

Cincinnati Iron Market.

There is no improvement in the demand, and while some holders are not disposed to accept current prices for pig iron, there is more than enough offered to supply the demand. Malleable iron is freely offered at previous prices, with a dull market. We make the following quotations, showing the range of the market for all grades of pig iron, at 4 mos, per ton: Charcoal hot blast H. R.—No. 1, $27@29; No. 2 do, $26 to $27; do. mill, $26; Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee—No. 1, $27 to $28; No. 2 do., $27; mill, $26. Stone coal and coke iron —No. 1, $26 to $27; No. 2, $25 to $26; mill, $25. Charcoal cold blast H. R., $40@50. Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee, warm and cold blast, $35 to $40. Blooms, $80 to $90.

DAILY REPORT OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, July 7, 1875.

Trade continues very dull, as it nearly always is at this season of the year, and we do not look for any decided improvement during the next month, or until after harvest. It is worthy of notice, however, that there is a stronger feeling in regard to some of the leading markets, including, among others, Grain, Groceries, and Provisions, under the influence of late advices from the source of supply, but the demand continues light, confined entirely to supplying immediate wants.

APPLES—Sales of old at $4@8 per barrel, and new at $3@4, according to quality and condition.

BEANS—Very dull, with but little prospect of an early improvement; Mediums, $1,80 to $1,85 per bush. and Navies, $1,90 to $2.

BUTTER—There is no improvement to report in the demand, and with holders anxious to keep down stocks, prices continue weak but without quotable change; prime to choice solid packed, 14@16.

BERRIES—Raspberries, $6 to $9 per stand of two bu. Cherries, $9@10 per stand. Strawberries out of season.

CHEESE—Prime Ohio Factory is unchanged at 11@11½; there is little or no demand for low grade stock.

DRIED FRUIT—Quiet; Apples, 7½@8¼. Peaches, halves, 10@10½.

EGGS—The receipts continue light, and good fresh receipts are bringing full prices, 18@19. Old stock hard to be disposed of at any price.

FLOUR—The general tone of the market is a shade firmer, but the demand continues light, and prices remain unchanged. Spring wheat flours, $5,75 to $6,25, the outside figure for choice Minnesotas; winters, $6,25@6,50 for red, and $6,75@7 for amber and white. Rye Flour, $6@6,25.

GROCERIES.—Coffee—On the seaboard there has been a continued activity in Rio, and quotations were again advanced ¼c ℔ lb., holders evincing much firmness and confidence under the reduced supplies. Our market has undergone no change, but an advance of one cent ℔ lb. will likely be made soon, as the current figures are now below the cost of laying down. Java, Maracaibo, and other mild grades higher and very firm. Sugar is better, both raw and refined, A Coffee Sugar having advanced to 10¾c at the refineries. The supply of refined is unequal to the demand. Raws are in excess of the stock held at this date last year. Hard Sugars up ⅛c. Molasses and Syrups dull. Rice steady.

GRAIN—The receipts of Wheat continue light, but there does not appear to be much inquiry for it, and prices are entirely nominal. Pennsylvania and Ohio red, $1 25@1,28; ditto amber and white, 2 to 3 cents additional. Dealers here have been giving this particular grain little or no attention recently, hence there is little or none coming forward excepting that consigned to and owned by millers. The Oat market continues quiet and unchanged; mixed, 62@63, prime white, 63½ to 64c. Ear Corn in light stock but unchanged; 76 to 78 on track, according to quality. Shelled Corn continues dull and nominal at 76@78 free in elevator. Rye quiet and nominally unchanged at $1,10 to $1,12.

HAY—The market for baled continues quiet and unchanged; prairie, $17 to $18; timothy, $20 to $22, according to quality. Loose, from country wagons, $25 to $28.

MILL FEED—Continues very dull, and notwithstanding the supply is only fair, prices are barely maintained; Bran is quoted at $18 to $19 per ton.

POTATOES, ETC., ETC.—New crop Potatoes, $3 to $3,50 ℔ bbl; old almost unsaleable. Onions ℔ box, $1 to $1.50; $3 to $3,50 ℔ bbl; Cucumbers, $1½ to $2 ℔ box. Commission men report that it is almost impossible to dispose of String Beans or Peas at any price, as neighboring gardeners are now supplying the trade.

PROVISIONS—The market is fairly active and firmer, but unchanged. We take the following from the last issue of the Cincinnati Price Current: "There has been a steady improvement in the market since our last review, with only temporary checks and no going back, the strong undertone which we then reported has since developed into more general confidence under a better consumptive demand, and more speculative inquiry for future delivery. The foreign exports from the seaboard ports have contributed to give more tone to the market, for there was an increase in the exports of the week ending Saturday of over 1,500,000 lbs in excess of the corresponding week last year—both meat and lard showing an increase—while the receipts of hogs at Chicago, although liberal, have not been so excessive as to produce the depression which was observable last week. The stock continues to gravitate toward the hands of strong parties, and since the settlement of all June contracts the sellers have assumed control of the market. The cheapest article now is sugar-cured hams, and at the prices current they are attracting more attention, as they ought to do, for they are netting a loss to the packer of about one cent ℔ lb on the average, and they are relatively the cheapest meat in market either salt or fresh. Whether there is sufficient justification for the advance in prices of bulk meats bacon and lard, which has taken place, in the amount of stock on hand and the probable demand for the remainder of the season, is an open question, but it is conceded that it will be better for the trade, if a break must come that it shall be late in the season."

Briggs, Dock & Drum, Wholesale Dealers and Commission Merchants for the sale of Live Stock, at the Central Stock Yards, East Liberty, report as follows:

CATTLE.

The run both of local and through consignments has been light, unusually so, and with an average demand and meagre supply, the market has reacted sharply, as compared with the past two weeks, with an advance in prices of ¼ to ⅜ a cent per lb. The improvement was greatest in the common and medium grades, notwithstanding the supply of prime fed beeves was exceedingly small, but it should be borne in mind that the shrinkage during the past two or three weeks was much larger in the former than the latter, hence, the rebound was greater. As has been the case for some time, the bulk of the offerings consisted mainly of "grassers" from Ohio and other adjoining States, and the market for these, we apprehend, was much better than was generally expected.

As we close our report, the yards are pretty well cleared, with the demand unsatisfied, even at the advance, and there is not much doubt but the market will continue to rule in sellers' favor during the balance of the week. This is the first good market the selling interest have had for several weeks, and, as might be expected, it was duly appreciated. Sellers go home in a good deal better spirits when they have realized a margin for profit on their stock, than, as was the case last week, as well as the one preceding that again, when they lose freight and other expenses, say nothing about driftage in weight, which is always a big item at this season of the year.

QUOTATIONS.

Prime 1,400@1,500 steers	6,75@7,00
Good 1,200@1,300 steers	6,25@6,62
Good 1,050@1,150 steers	6,12@6,25
Bulls, Stags, and cows	4,00@4,50

No stock cattle here, and there is little or no demand for them.

HOGS.

Following is a review of the market for the week ending at noon to-day: Thursday, July 1.—Receipts fair, with a decline of fully 10c ℔ cwt on Philadelphia hogs: Yorkers, 7,10@7,20, with all roughs out. Rough hogs sold at 5¼@6; Philadelphia hogs, 7,50@7,55, and but few of the latter selling. Friday, July 2.—Arrivals being quite liberal, the market was dull at 7,15@7,25 for light, smooth Yorkers; Philadelphia, 7,30, with few selling. Saturday, July 3.—Market opened firm for light, smooth hogs, weighing 160 to 200 lbs, and these sold brisk at 7,20 to 7,30, while at the same time heavy hogs could scarcely be sold at any price. We notice that one of the Pittsburgh papers quoted best Philadelphia hogs at 7,60 to 7,65, but where these quotations were obtained we are at a loss to conjecture, as they could not be sold even at 7,30 on the day in question. Such reports are a great annoyance to the trade, and cannot but damage the paper publishing them. Monday, July 5.—Market opened with a full supply and was dull; one lot of extra brought 7,30, but the most of the sales of heavy hogs were at 7,10 to 7,15, while good, smooth light weights brought 7¼. Market closed dull for heavy hogs, with quite a number unsold, while light weights were in demand at quoted rates. Tuesday, July 6.—Receipts light, but no change in the general situation, either as regards demand or prices. Wednesday, July 7.—Receipts light, and while the demand for Philadelphia hogs continues meagre, there was a better feeling, as the outlook was regarded as being more favorable. Light smooth Yorkers brought 7,20 to 7,40; Philadelphia tops, 7,20 to 7,30; heavy hogs, 250 to 300 lbs, 7 to 7,10 and dull; roughs, 5 to 6c. One car stillers brought 6¾.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The run has been quite small, which is not surprising after the very unsatisfactory market of last week, as well as the one preceding that again, and with a very meagre supply and an increased demand, there has been quite an advance in prices; ⅛ to ¼ of a cent. As we close our report, there is scarcely anything remaining in the yards unsold, and some buyers have not bought a single sheep. The market closes firm at the following

BRIGGS, DOCK & DRUM.

The Wheat Outlook from a Chicago Stand Point.

The wheat prospect is now attracting more than usual attention in commercial circles, and the more so as the appearance of things has undergone a radical change within the past month. In May we were loaded down with stocks, big deliveries promised from the country, and but a poor outlook eastward, buyers holding off under the cry of big stocks and brilliant prospects in Europe. Since then a good demand for export has sprung up, and the unprecedentedly low rates of freights have enabled the West to realize moderate prices, though the figures paid at the East and in Europe were very low. Recently it is found that European crops are not likely to pan out so largely as was promised, and widespread destruction by floods on the other side of the Atlantic has formed a parallel to the havoc caused by the grasshoppers in the Western States. The weather in this section, too, though favorable to a good growth of hay and straw, does not promise well for heading out, so that our wheat crop will be much less than was expected, the latest estimates placing it at not much more than 80 per cent. of a recent average crop. It seems also that the farmers' deliveries in England are falling off to a much lower point than was expected, the low prices of grain and the high price of straw having stimulated an unusually active consumption of grain by the growers. Hence, buyers in Europe, both in England and on the Continent, have wakened up into new life, and have taken our wheat freely, causing a material reduction of our stocks, though at much better prices than the most sanguine had dared to hope. It was feared that the large accumulations here would form an overwhelming argument in favor of a decline to the neighborhood of 85c per bu., and not a few of those who had held on in hope of an upward turn, veered round to the bear side, just before the European demand sprung up. How long that will continue cannot be known. Operators are able to calculate somewhat in regard to a British demand, because John Bull is slow, even at times of greatest excitement. But the French buyers take hold on the spur of the moment, and may buy heavily one day, and then take not another bushel for a month afterwards. For this reason the report of a "continental demand" for Wheat is never a trustworthy gauge of the future of the market. There is, however, little reason to doubt that a good deal more of American Wheat will be wanted in Great Britain before the proceeds of the harvest there are available, and equally good reason to think that our own surplus of old and new wheat after the coming harvest is gathered will prove to be less than enough to break down the market by its weight. The peculiar weather of the present year, with the grasshopper scourge, have made the differences between a surplus so large as to be unwieldy, and a fair working stock. There is no reason to expect that wheat prices will soon again rise to the figures of a few years ago, but neither is it probable that quotations will recede far below a dollar in this country on the crop of 1875.—Chicago Tribune.

L. A. WELSH, Sergeant Signal Service, U. S. A.

THE river was about stationary at last evening, with 31 inches by the marks. The Allegheny was rising at Oil City, and it is expected that there will be a rise here of at least a foot within the next 24 hours. There have evidently been some heavy rains north of this point within the past day or two, and coal men still have hopes of sufficient water to let out the coal fleet within the next few days.

THERE have been no arrivals or departures since the date of our last report, excepting the Monongahela river packets.

CAPT. B. D. WOOD, an old Pittsburgher, but who for the past ten years has been a resident of New Orleans, is here on a visit. He expects to remain in this city until September.

OUR latest advices from Oil City at this writing report 45 inches at that point, and rising. The Big Beaver is reported as having come out strongly on Tuesday night. There was also a heavy rain at Wheeling the same night.

PILOT W. H. Hall writes:—In answer to Colonel Merrill's card, published in the Cincinnati Commercial of July 3, I will state the list I gave to the paper was correct. The snags are new ones. The two Colonel Merrill speaks of were taken out by his orders some time since.

THE snag-boat O. H. Waggoner, in Ouachita River, has cleared Haldee Rock Heap completely, raised most of the machinery of the Lotawauna and brought the same to Monroe, cleared Horse Head and Jack's Island, and she is now working on Rock Row and Soutree, and will soon have all the obstructions out of the way.

THE steamer Susie Silver, which left St. Louis on Saturday evening with the National Guards and a large party of excursionists on board for Quincy, struck the bridge at Louisiana, Mo., on her return trip Monday night, and stove her starboard wheel and upper works. She is coming down on one wheel. So far as known nobody was hurt.

THE fine steamer John L. Rhoads, Capt. J. M. Vandergrift, as will be seen by card, is announced to take her departure for St. Louis this P. M. The Rhoads is conceded to be, in all respects, the best boat that has ever been built here for the Pittsburgh and St. Louis trade for several years. Messrs. Fisher and Greenlee are associated together in the office.

ROBERT N. YERBY was shot and killed on the steamer A. J. White, near St. Louis landing, Arkansas, Sunday morning, by B. L. Oliver and his son. The killing grew out of an old grudge, young Oliver first shooting Yerby in the temple. After he fell the elder Oliver fired at him. The Olivers then ordered the boat to land, which was done, and they escaped in the woods.

A TELEGRAM from St. Louis says:—The Susie Silver ran against a pier of the Louisiana Bridge, last night, at 12 o'clock, and had her larboard wheel carried away. The damage will be over $6,000. The boat was returning from Quincy, with Company A of the St. Louis National Guard, which had spent the Fourth there. Quite a number ladies were on board, and for a time the consternation was great. The crash of the collision was heard a mile distant. No lives were lost. The Fannie Tatum leaves for Pittsburgh to-morrow. The Bismarck lies over till to-morrow evening.

THE St. Louis Globe-Democrat, referring to Hardy Wilson, the great American jumper and diver, says:—He was an officer on the Robert Campbell, Capt. James McKinney, when that boat burned above Vicksburg several years ago. Hardy, with many others, had swam ashore from the burning boat, when he discovered a woman in the wheel house of the boat. Certain that death was hers in a few minutes, unless rescued, he plunged into the river and swam to the stern of the boat, where the yawl was still fastened. The boat was almost entirely enveloped in flames, but he succeeded in cutting the painter of the yawl, and by hauling it under the guards, reached the woman, took her in the boat, and brought her to shore safely. This act of heroism was witnessed by many persons who will testify to it, and Hardy has never been thanked sufficiently by his fellow-men for it.

Wisconsin Republican State Convention.

The Gradual Resumption of Specie Payments Advocated.

Minnesota Democratic State Convention.

MADISON, WIS., July 7.—The Republican State Convention met here to-day. The following ticket was nominated: For Governor, Harrison Ludington, of Milwaukee; Lieutenant Governor, H. T. Eaton, of Richland; Secretary of State, H. B. Warner, of Pierce; Treasurer, Henry Baetz, of Manitowoc; Attorney General, John R. Bennett, of Rock, and Superintendent of Public Instruction, Robert Graham, of Winnebago.

The Platform.

The following platform was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Republicans of Wisconsin declare their unalterable adherence to an indissoluble union of States; the sovereignty of the Federal Government in the functions assigned to it by the Constitution; the rights of States and the equality of all men before the law; that we declare parties to be only deserving of support so long as they advance wise and patriotic principles and promote the honest and efficient administration of public affairs; that we regard labor as entitled in a high degree to the protection of the Government in all its rights; that we are in favor of the freedom of religious opinion, and we therefore oppose any union between Church and State or interference with the religious faith or worship, or any legislation in the interest of any particular creed; that we stand by free education, our public school system, the taxation of all for its support, and no division of the school fund for any sectarian purpose; that we accept with approval the letter of President Grant, discouraging the continuance in office of any Chief Magistrate of the nation for a longer period than two terms; that we approve of the Republican National administration, and especially the earnest effort to collect the revenue, to prevent and punish fraud, to expose past violations and guard against their recurrence in the future; that we endorse the policy of adjusting difficulties between this and foreign nations by arbitration, instead of war, and as friends of justice, peace and humanity we shall hail the day when this policy shall be adopted throughout the world; that we adhere to the doctrine of legislative control over railroads and other corporations deriving their powers and franchises from the State, for the material benefit of the people and such corporations, without injustice to the interests of either, which policy was inaugurated and will continue to be fostered by the Republican party of Wisconsin, to the end that just and fair rates of transportation may be secured to all the people, while all unjust and oppressive acts of monopolies should be prohibited; that we favor the early attainment of a currency convertible with coin, and therefore advocate the gradual resumption of specie payments by continuous steps in that direction, in such manner as to disturb the business interests of the country as little as possible; that we are in favor of a tariff for revenue only, so adjusted as to be the least burthensome and most favorable to the interests of labor and industry; that we desire such a revision of the patent laws as will relieve industry from the oppression of monopolies and at the same time secure to the inventor fair remuneration and to the public the benefit of the invention upon equitable terms; that the Republican party will continue, by all means in the power of the State, to encourage immigration as an important agency in developing the resources and promoting the prosperity of the nation; that with the experience of the past in reference to National and State administrations, we have abundant evidence that the best interests of the people demand the continuance of the enlightened and liberal policy of the Republican party in its well-defined and clearly-announced purpose to foster the agricultural, industrial and commercial interests of the country by a judicious system of internal improvements, having for their objects the enlargement of facilities and reductions in the cost of transportation for our inter-State commerce by an honest and faithful administration of the laws, and by a firm adherence to principles of justice and progress. We hold that true education and sound morals are the best agencies for promoting the laudable cause of temperance.

Minnesota Democratic State Convention.

ST. PAUL, July 7.—The Democratic State Convention spent most of the afternoon in discussing the financial plank of the platform. Finally the specie-payment men prevailed over the expansionists by a large majority. The platform favors a return to gold and silver as a basis of the currency of the country, with preparation and effective measures to secure the resumption of specie payments.

The following ticket was nominated: For Governor, D. L. Buell; Lieutenant Governor, E. W. Durant; Secretary of State, Adolphus Bierman; State Auditor, M. Doran; State Treasurer, Albert Scheffer; Chief Justice of Supreme Court, L. Emmett; Railroad Commissioner, J. W. Sercerbox; Attorney General, R. Jones.

GRANGER PICNIC.

Immense Gathering of the Tillers of the Soil—Mass Meeting of Grangers at Mooretown—The Great Picnic of the Season.

PORT HOMER, O., July 5th, 1875.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.

For some weeks past a modest little card has been "set up" in the Steubenville Herald, announcing a picnic at Mooretown, in this county, on the 3d inst., and inviting the dear people to "come out" and enjoy a good time generally with them, and see and hear something about the Patrons of Husbandry, or "Grangers" as they are called.

Accordingly, I took an early start on the evening of the 3d, and after a pleasant drive of twelve miles up Yellow Creek, we found Mooretown, situated in a beautiful valley and in the heart of a fine agricultural country, where everything is a success, except fruit, which is a failure.

On my arrival I found the Independence Grange, mounted in regalia, and prepared to receive other Granges as they arrived, Marshall Criss doing the honors in true military style. A finer looking party of ladies and gentlemen I think I never saw. I really felt like offering myself for initiation, only being quieted on that subject by a bright eyed beauty observing they received none in that Grange but good looking men—well, I wilted. At 10 o'clock the different Granges having arrived, they took up their line of march for camp—a grove of heavy old oaks—where they were followed by carriages, horsemen, footmen, &c., &c., escorted by the Hammondville Brass band.

Meeting called to order and prayer by Rev. Morton, after which Brother Weaver, of Columbiana county, was introduced as the first speaker, who handled his subject and all monopolies without gloves—in fact, he convinced all the outside barbarians that it was a big thing to be a "Granger." After the address—music by the band, then dinner.

Now about "that dinner"—Mr. Editor did you ever see a "big" 4th of July dinner in the country? Well just let me give you an idea of an agricultural dinner—a grangers dinner. The table was (330) three hundred and thirty feet long covered with white muslin, and laden with all the delicacies of the season, and the substantial cookery from the hands of the thirty house, wives of Ross and adjoining townships.

One item: I noticed over 100 pound cakes of different styles, from a plain, melting delicious cake of ½ doz. pounds to a frosted, iced, fancy cake three stories high flanked with others less pretensious, but eqqually palatable. and every thing in boundless profusion that could tempt the palate of an epicure or set the appetite of a dyspeptic on edge. Well the ladies of Independence Grange are entitled to jeweled regalias, paths of roses, and pretty babies—talking of babies reminds me of a pair of twins of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith (one of your subscribers) a pair of chubby bright little four year old boys that Barnum would make a fortune by exhibiting.

After feeding about 2,000 people there was more than 7 baskets left—everybody delighted with the free dinner—no grumbling. no fighting, because there was no whisky.

The speaker's stand was decorated with evergreens, flags, banners and emblems of the order.

After dinner Rev. Morton made an able speech. Others followed, until everybody was pleased with "Grangerism" and felt as though this had been their great gala day in celebrating the 4th, the last of the century, and I hope and believe the first of a great and glorious uprising of freemen to stand by one another and their rights. Grangers of Mooretown, accept my thanks—long will be remembered your kindly, pleasant faces and kind acts. H.

The Perrysville Presbyterian Church.

The Presbytery of Allegheny held an adjourned meeting on the 6th inst., in the old Hiland church, at Perrysville, for the purpose of ordaining and installing a young pastor, Rev. W. W. Morton, over that flourishing congregation. The old house itself has been rejuvenated, and with its fresh frescoing, its stained windows, and its modern platform, in place of the old fashioned pulpit, has quite a progressive appearance. The ordination services were conducted chiefly by the Moderator pro tem., Rev. G. M. Potter, who presided, and made the ordaining prayer; Rev. Thomas Lawrence, who preached the sermon; Rev. James M. Shields, who gave the charge to the pastor, and Rev. S. M. Holliday, who gave the charge to the people.

A sumptuous dinner was provided by the ladies, under the shade of the old oaks in the churchyard, to which the Presbytery and the large congregation present did ample justice. A neat and commodious parsonage stands near by, which doubtless suggested to many the great tact of the young pastor in one respect, namely, that as yet, he has no pastoress to occupy it with him. No doubt the good ladies who furnished that dinner will be ready to afford their kind offices in helping their pastor to remedy this defect.

Among the other items of business was one introduced by Rev. Wm. Annan, who called the attention of the Presbytery to a slanderous accusation recently made against him in a certain evening paper, and requested a committee of investigation. The charge was, in substance, that of loaning money at usurious rates of interest, and in the few remarks which he made he took occasion to say that he had never loaned money in his life (not having it to lend), except on one occasion, when he happened to have $100 with which he accommodated a poor student for a few days, without interest, but he had never seen the $100 since. After a little discussion, the Presbytery decided that in their judgment the character of Mr. Annan needed no vindication, and that in consideration of the circumstances in which the accusation was made, and the source from whence it came, it was not worthy of further notice. That notorious sheet seems, in this case, to have exceeded its usual recklessness of statement by manufacturing this slander out of whole cloth. QUIS.

The Allegheny City Guards.

The new infantry company organized in Allegheny, called the Allegheny City Guards, held a meeting last evening and elected the following officers: Captain, W. W. Tyson; First Lieutenant, James Archibald; Second Lieutenant, W. C. Brothers. The company was then mustered in by Col. James B. Moore, after which addresses were made by a number of persons. The company has now eighty-six names on its muster roll.

A Lively Time in Allegheny.

Last evening about seven o'clock a man named Hollinger directed officer McIntyre to arrest his brother, a boy eighteen years of age, who was intoxicated and was acting very disorderly. As the officer was removing him to the lock-up a crowd assaulted him at the corner of Cedar avenue and Ohio street and attempted to rescue the boy, but the officer called assistance and drove the crowd back, and then arrested Robert Brown, one of the leaders in the crowd, and took him along with the boy and locked them both up. They will have a hearing this morning.

The South Side Shooting.

Officer Joseph McCoy, who shot John O'Neill on Tuesday evening at the latter's residence, head of Twenty-eighth street, South Side, gave $2,000 bail yesterday before Alderman Donley for a hearing next Monday, an information for felonious assault and battery having been made against him by Mrs. O'Neill. She alleges that her husband had no knife, which is a contradiction of McCoy's statement, and says the latter broke open the door of their house and made an unprovoked assault. The ball has been extracted from O'Neill's wound, and he is said to be out of danger.

OFF THE TRACK.

A Misplaced Switch Causes Serious Damage to a Train.

Last evening as the passenger train on the Connellsville Railroad, which passes Hazelwood after seven o'clock, was coming toward Pittsburgh it was thrown from the track by a misplaced switch at that place, the engine and entire train going off. No one was hurt, but the engine was thrown over on its side, which resulted in disabling her for use until she can be repaired. The accident caused no delay in the trains, and efforts were made to get the cars on the track as soon as possible.

THE SHERIFF CONVENTION.

The Meeting To-day—A Nomination Thought Probable.

The Convention to nominate a Republican candidate for Sheriff will meet in the Common Pleas Court room this morning at 11 o'clock. Matters have been quiet since the last meeting, but it is thought that the delegates having had a chance to fully consider the situation, will be ready to complete the business to-day. There are rumors of coalitions, but these are just as positively denied, so that the appearances are that all the candidates will have their friends around them to commence with at least. Just what will be the result after the first two or three ballots, is a matter which the wisest political prophet will not hazard an opinion. The meeting promises to be an interesting one in all respects; there is a general opinion that it will make a final decision of the question before it.

THE RAILWAY TRUCE.

The Advance Rates in Operation—The New Arrangement Working Harmoniously.

The advance rates of fare as agreed upon between the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio Railways, says the Baltimore Gazette, went into effect on Monday. As a result, the trains of the latter passed over the New Jersey lines on that day for the first time since February. The new rates have already been published, but notwithstanding the general publicity given to the adjustment a great many persons who applied at the various ticket offices on Monday were surprised to learn that the advance had been made. The officials of both roads stated yesterday that the new arrangements are working very satisfactorily, and that everything was going along quietly and harmoniously. It is, however, but fair to say that some dissatisfaction is manifested in many quarters. This is particularly the case as to the rate fixed for Pittsburgh. The fare from Baltimore to the Smoky City has been placed at $9, while that to Cincinnati is only $12.25. It is said the effect of this will be that persons going the former place will purchase tickets for the latter, and take the chance of selling the Cincinnati coupons, which really costs but $3.25 to speculators. In answer to inquiries, prominent railway officials state it to be their belief that the increase in fares will not reduce passenger traffic to any appreciable degree.

A FATAL SHOT.

An Unknown Man Killed While Trying to Break into a House.

At Braddock's Fields the proprietors of the Edgar Thompson Works are putting up a new building and have a watchman on duty both day and night. Near the works is the house occupied by the watchman a portion of the time while on duty. On Tuesday night an unknown man came to the door of the house and asked for admittance, which was refused. He went away and was soon seen by those within, in the rear of the building. This was about nine o'clock in the evening. Three quarters of an hour latter the same party again made his appearance at the door and demanded admission. George Gardner, the watchman, who was inside, told him he would not open the door, whereupon the stranger tried to force it open by kicking it at a lively rate. Mr. Gardner, thinking there was danger ahead, drew a revolver and shot through the door, more to frighten the man away than anything else, but the shot proved a fatal one. The ball passed through the door and entered the skull of the unknown man, finding a lodgement in his brain, causing almost instant death. After the shooting Gardner gave himself up to the authorities of the borough, and stated what he had done. Yesterday the Coroner went to Braddock's and held an inquest on the remains of the deceased, when a verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered. Gardner was brought to the city last night and lodged in jail although the Coroner thought there was nothing to hold him, but the jury did not feel disposed to take the responsibility upon themselves of discharging him without an investigation of the case by the Court. There was no witnesses examined except Gardner, who was the only one who could give any information in regard to the occurrence. There was nothing found upon the body of the deceased except a circus bill and an almanac. Upon one of these was the address of a business house in Philadelphia.

ALLEGHENY WATER WORKS.

The New Lowry Engine Taken off the Contractors Hands.

The Water Committee of Allegheny Councils met last evening, Mr. A. D. Smith presiding.

Mr. Price called the attention of the committee to the fact that the supply of water on Carroll street was very poor, and suggested that the main pipe on Federal street be extended from Carroll to Ledlie street. It was decided to lay the main, provided Councils at their meeting this evening authorizes the issuing of the bonds asked by the committee.

Mr. Joseph Lowry, Mechanical Engineer, and the inventor of the new large pumping engine lately put up in Allegheny, was present, and stated that the engine was now finished and had been working very satisfactorily for some time past. He thought everything had been completed according to the contract, by the contractors. According to the contract, he (Mr. Lowry) is required to give his certificate to the committee of the faithful completion of the contract, and that the engine was working properly before it can be accepted by the committee.

Mr. Johnston thought Mr. Lowry should present the committee with a written certificate that the contract had been fully carried out.

Mr. Lowry said he would sign a written certificate to that effect.

The original contract was then presented and Mr. Lowry certified on it that it had been faithfully carried out.

The certificate was accepted and the engine was accepted by the city, and the balance due on the contract was ordered to be paid, as was also the amount due Mr. Lowry for his superintendency.

After the approval of a number of bills and the allowance of several exonerations of water tax the committee adjourned.

Criminal Court.

PRESENTMENT OF THE GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jury made the following presentment yesterday:

To the Honorable Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of Allegheny County:

The Grand Jury of June session, 1875, respectfully presents to your Honors that they passed upon 363 bills of indictment, of which number 236 true bills were found and 127 bills ignored. That they visited all the public institutions and found them in good condition, except that the county jail has not sufficient capacity. The Grand Jury also present that there is a great deal of inattention paid by the authorities to the quarterly returns of the Constables, which has enabled violators to escape with impunity. It is generally known that there are bars in this city which are kept open day and night, and on Sundays and election days, and yet the Constables of those wards in which the saloons are located make no returns of any such violations. Another matter has been suggested to the Grand Jury by local notices recently published in the city daily papers, viz.: the action of the Grand Jury in passing upon liquor bills presented to them by the Assistant District Attorney. Informations in many of these cases are made from information received by professional informers and temperance advocates; and when the proofs offered to sustain the indictments thereon fail to satisfy the jury, then they, the jury, are reflected upon. As it is impossible for any one outside to know what may be testified to before the jury, so likewise it is impossible for them to judge of the action of the jury thereon. The jury are, however, impervious to any such remarks, and have a supreme contempt for the persons who may have originated them. The Grand Jury commends the Assistant District Attorney for his efficiency and attention to the duties of his office.

A PETITION FOR RELIEF.

The Grand Jury have, during the present term of Court, ignored quite a number of bills against saloon keepers, and the consequence has been the prosecutors have been ordered to pay the costs. A number of cases, in which Mr. A. W. Black, who has been quite active in working in the interest of the crusaders, appeared as the informant has been disposed of in this manner, which has caused some dissatisfaction in the ranks of the temperance folks. Yesterday a petition was laid on Judge Stowe's desk at the opening of the Criminal Court, which was signed by Mr. Black and C. J. Harris, Esq., which set forth in substance that the crusaders had received complaints from a Mrs. Linker in Reserve township, to the effect that Frank A. Metz, a saloon keeper, had been selling liquor to her husband and also on Sunday and to minors. An information was made before an Alderman, who held Metz for Court, and it is set forth that when the case came before the Grand Jury there was sufficient testimony to warrant an indictment. After the witnesses had been examined it is alleged that they were ordered to retire from the room, after which the bills were ignored and the costs assessed on the prosecutors, which amounted to over $300. The Court was asked to grant necessary relief from what was considered by the petitioners, a great injustice.

Judge Stowe refused to interfere with the action of the Grand Jury, but on the contrary thought the paper "an impertinent interference with the Grand Jury." It is probable that Messrs. Black and Haines will pay the costs without further complaint.

CONFERENCE SESSION.

A. M. E. Zion Church—Twenty-sixth Annual Session—The First Day's Proceedings.

The Twenty-sixth Annual Session of the Allegheny Conference of the A. M. E. Zion Church of America commenced yesterday morning in Avery Mission Church, Allegheny. Bishop J. J. Moore, of the Second Episcopal District, presided, and called the meeting to order at ten o'clock. The platform was also occupied by Bishop J. J. Clinton, of the First Episcopal District, New York. The services were opened by Bishop Moore, who read the 40th chapter of Isaiah and the 12th chapter of Revelation.

Rev. Mr. Price then announced the hymn commencing:—

"High on His everlasting throne
The King of Saints His work surveys,
Marks the dear souls He calls His own,
And smiles on the peculiar race."

After the singing of the hymn Rev. Mr. Hamilton led in prayer.

The Conference was then organized for business by the election of Rev. M. M. Bell as Secretary; Rev. W. H. J. McDay Assistant Secretary; Rev. Mr. Howard, Reporter; Mr. B. F. Pulpress, Assistant Reporter.

Bishop Moore then addressed the conference in an impressive and feeling manner. He referred with devout thankfulness to the success which had crowned their labors during the past year. The church had passed through some fiery trials, but the blessings of the Most High had been showered upon it, and success had attended the efforts of the toilers. He urged greater consecration among both ministers and laymen, and exhorted all to be united in the work, and then all the powers of evil could not prevail against them, but the world and Satan would have to give way.

Bishop Clinton also made a short but touching address. He expressed his pleasure at being among them. His last visit here was made twenty years ago. He had then helped to plant the standard of the church in the west and had helped to organize the first Conference in the District. The Bishops who presided at the first Conference were now gone, together with many who were then associated with them in the blessed work, but who had since entered into rest. These were all waiting on the shining shore to welcome their brothers into eternal felicity. He hoped that they would all so live in peace here with all men, and do the work of the Master so that they might be approved of God when he numbered his children.

The roll was then called and it appeared that there was a full attendance of members.

The Conference then adjourned until two P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was opened with devotional exercises, after which the Conference proceeded to examine the character of the ministers, in accordance with disciplinary requirements. When the name of D. B. Matthews was called, his character was arrested. He had been pastor over the John Wesley Church, Pittsburgh, and had been suspended on a charge of immorality. The case was referred to a committee.

Rev. Mr. Brown, of Brown's Chapel, Allegheny, and Rev. Mr. Phillips were introduced to the Conference. Prof. Neale, editor of the Elevator, was also introduced, and, with the other two, was made a corresponding member. Prof. Neale made a brief address in behalf of the Elevator, and of a fraternal character.

The following committees were then announced:

Committee on Rules—John Fidler, E. C. Pipkins.

Committee on Devotional Exercises—J. E. Price, M. M. Bell.

Committee on Complaints—J. E. Price, George Bosley, J. Ross, F. Fidler, J. W. Tarrey.

Committee on Holy Orders—J. E. Price, C. Pipkins, M. M. Bell, J. Fidler.

Committee on Sabbath Schools—Wm. H. McDade, M. M. Knox.

Committee on Education—J. E. Price, J. V. Gibens, Wm. H. McDade.

Committee on Church Extension—J. V. Gibens, M. M. Bell, B. F. Pulpress.

Committee on State of the Country—M. M. Bell, Wm. McDade, J. Ross.

Committee on Credentials—John Davis, M. W. L. Knox.

Marshals—J. H. Barnes, S. T. Whiting.

The Conference then adjourned until this morning at ten o'clock.

Business Activity.

Times are not dull. Every person to the contrary notwithstanding. For proof of this go the Boston Clothing House, 95 Smithfield street, and as you wedge your way through the crowd of customers you will be reminded of the crowds on market day. But, so it is and so it will be, for while suits are sold at 95 Smithfield street for ten and twelve dollars, for which others charge twenty and twenty-five, the Boston One Price will be the center of attraction.

····The embryo Anti-Treat Society meets again this afternoon in the Reception room of Municipal Hall. The proposed formation of this organization in this city is attracting attention abroad. The New York Commercial Advertiser says "Pittsburgh has an 'Anti-Treating Society,' whose members are never allowed to invite any one to step up and smile. As for declining when any one else does the inviting, that's quite another thing, you know."

····A gentleman who lives above Freeport, on the Allegheny river, about forty miles from Pittsburgh, arrived in the city yesterday and left information at the Mayor's office that a pleasure boat had been stolen from him on Tuesday evening and he thought perhaps the men who took it might have brought it here. Lieutenant Hagar was directed to watch the Allegheny river and in a short time he observed the craft coming down stream with two men in it. Getting in a skiff he rowed out to the men and ordered them to run it into the wharf. They did so and he then arrested them. They gave their names as John Appleton and George W. Paddy and are now in the Central Police Station awaiting a warrant from Armstrong county where the owner has gone to enter suit against them for larceny.

····The residence of Mr. A. K. Nimick, at the corner of Penn and Marbury streets, was ransacked by thieves yesterday, who took advantage of the absence of the family at their country residence to pillage the house. They were evidently in search of money and silverware, for valuable dress and household goods were tossed aside as valueless. The robbery was first discovered by the coachman, who informed the police. It is thought that but comparatively little of anything was stolen, but the contents of the house were turned upside down. The fellows left behind them three pair of old shoes and a like number of dirty socks, the natural inference being that they were replaced by better foot wear found in the house. The socks were odoriferous enough to make one almost believe that they had once been worn by Henry Clay Dean. The Board of Health took charge of them and disinfected the house.

····In a Teutonic temple of Bacchus on Smithfield street, not a thousand miles from this office, there is a piano of the tin-pan order, at which a superior vocalist of marvelous screeching powers whiles away the weary hours every evening. The neighborhood is generally peaceful and serene these summer evenings until that child of song lets on his wind. When that catastrophe occurs [it generally takes place about eight o'clock, and the saw-filing is kept up till midnight,] a feeling of partial frenzy and of deep melancholy settles down upon every man, woman and child within earshot of the Æolian melody, and every one but the gifted songster is impressed with a conviction that existence on this terrestial sphere is but a harrowing trial. The concord of sweet notes—a combination of boiler riveting and calliope sounds—continues, however, until about the witching hour when graveyards yawn; when the wind of the singer begins to fail him, the song is hushed to a gentle lullaby or beery gurgle and finally dies away. Then the people experience a thrill of delight as though a twenty ton weight had been lifted from their nerves, and in the ecstacy of their emotion they may perhaps forgive and forget the singer, but they ne'er forget the song. Now, in narrating these facts, we are not actuated by a desire to have that melody repressed,—shut up in the bosom of the singer altogether—as that would certainly kill him—but we would suggest that he take the cracked piano, and the ditto voice, and he to a sequestered retreat in some vast wilderness, where he could have fuller vent for his musical genius, and yet leave the rest of the world comparatively happy. Should he not heed this suggestion, we fear either the Health Officer, or the Mayor, or the agent of the Humane Society will have to call upon him officially, for a continuous strain of melody like that cannot possibly be borne more than a fortnight at a time. It is linked sweetness entirely too long drawn out, and when horses passing that way get rampageous, when every stranger thinks it is an agonizing cry for the fire department, when children wail as though they heard the preliminary sounds of some dread catastrophe, when the people generally are in terror for fear the singer will suddenly slip his wind and let the music end with a crash—why then it does seem as if the singer should either ease up a little or else the authorities must be appealed to. Gentle child of song, could'st thou not heed the suggestion and give to suffering mortals, who never wished thee ill, a brief respite?

THE MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Notes From the Sanctuary of Justice.

The following items our reporter gathered yesterday at the Mayor's office:

John Weih lives at No. 60, Willow street, Seventh ward, Allegheny. On Tuesday morning his domicile was entered by some unprincipled early bird who stole his watch and revolver, and $75 in greenbacks which were sewed up in the belt of Mrs. Weih's dress. The placing of the money there was a Weih's precaution, but it availed nothing, for the thief appears to have been familiar with its location. The apartments on the third floor of the house, occupied by another family, were visited by the thief and ransacked, but nothing of value taken. Detective Messner was made acquainted with the facts of the case, and is working it up.

Michael and R. Powers, who were arrested for fighting in front of the former's saloon, at the corner of First avenue and Grant street, on Tuesday afternoon, had a hearing yesterday evening and the Mayor fined them $25 and costs. Officer Moore, who attempted to stop the fighting, and for that purpose went into the saloon, when the door was locked on him, was pretty badly abused.

August Wagner, proprietor of the saloon at No. 414 Fifth avenue, and his wife, yesterday gave $500 bail before the Mayor to answer at Court a charge of assault and battery preferred against them by officers McCullough and Murray. A few days ago the policemen were pursuing a fugitive who took refuge in Wagner's saloon. The defendants protected him, and when the officers went in after him Wagner locked the door and made them prisoners, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided. Murray had a thumb masticated also.

James Neal, a contractor, will have a hearing this afternoon at three o'clock on a charge of nuisance. Sarah McMullin, who instituted the suit, says the accused is blasting rock in the Twenty-seventh ward, above Brownsville avenue, without taking the precaution necessary for the preservation of human life in that vicinity. She barely escaped being tapped on the head yesterday afternoon by a rock weighing a ton, more or less, which fell in her back yard, and she has no desire to have her nerves shocked in that manner again.

Abednego Davis and his wife were walking along Second avenue, near the Pennsylvania forge, on Tuesday morning when, according to his allegation, he was attacked and abused by John Roxbury and another whom he did not know. He went through the furnace, but unlike Abednego of old he did not come out unscathed. Roxbury gave bail to answer a suit for assault and battery.

James Crilly is in the Central Police Station awaiting a hearing this afternoon, on a charge of the larceny of a small sum of money on Monday night from John F. Devine.

A CASE OF INTEREST.

Alleged Cruel Treatment of a Daughter.

The Humane Society met yesterday afternoon, and in the business submitted for its consideration was a report from Superintendent Street concerning a case of alleged cruel treatment of a young girl, which has excited no little comment in one of the suburban districts of the city. The Society having no jurisdiction over such matters it was not acted upon. The report, which was presented more as an item of information than anything else, is as follows:

Some days since information was received that a man living in —— ward had a daughter that they claimed was insane, and that she was cruelly treated by her parents. I took Agent Dean with me and visited the place. After some conversation with the parents they consented to let us see the girl, and brought her into the room. We found her full grown, about twenty years of age, with a good, intelligent countenance. She appeared well educated and conversed naturally and sensibly. She asked us to bring her away; said she wanted to go away from there; that they whipped and abused her at times; would not let her go to church, nor let her have anything to read. When asked what she would like to read, she replied, any thing that was suitable for a young lady to read. When asked if she liked to read novels, she replied no, that she liked something containing more sense than novels. When asked about her food she said she liked everything good; that strong coffee hurt her head, and strong tea kept her awake. She still wanted us to bring her away, and when told we could not do that, she began to cry. She has been confined in the loft and different places, and is now in a room in an adjoining house, in which no person has lived for about three years. She looks pale and much reduced. Naturally she is robust and hearty. When we asked her parents why they did not send her to an asylum, they said they could take care of her without that expense. On the whole, we were of the opinion that humanity would require her removal from her present place and influences, and that restoration of health and mind, if diseased, could be restored if rightly treated and with right influences around her. We inquired of different neighbors who all say she should be removed, and believe that she can be restored.

ZADOK STREET.

THE AMMON MURDER.

The Case Concluded—The Jury out.

The case of Zell, Hoffman and Fishbach, indicted for the murder of Martin Ammon, was resumed in the Criminal Court yesterday, Judge Stowe on the bench. A number of additional witnesses were examined on the part of the Commonwealth, but the testimony offered differed but little from that published in our issue of yesterday. It was clearly shown that the defendants had been ejected from the saloon at each visit which they had made, and had received rather rough treatment at the hands of those within.

The defense was opened by Mr. Marshall, who stated that they would show that Ammon was struck by a beer glass thrown by Sorg, not for the purpose of killing him, but that it had been directed at the heads of the defendants, had missed its mark, and resulted in the fatal consequences.

At the conclusion of Mr. Marshall's address, Mr. Moreland, who was counsel for Fishbach, stated that he had a number of witnesses which he wished to examine, but as there was no evidence against his client he thought it unnecessary to protract the case in their examination. The Court intimated that a verdict of acquittal should be rendered in his case.

A number of witnesses were called to testify as to Zell and Hoffman, and in one or two instances the testimony went to show that Sorg had thrown two or three beer glasses during the row. The evidence was closed about one o'clock, when the counsel proceeded to address the jury. At five o'clock Judge Stowe began to deliver the charge in which he told the jury it could bring in a verdict of acquittal, manslaughter or murder in the first or second degree as they saw fit. The law on each point was plainly laid down, and at the conclusion of the remarks of the Court the jury retired, and are still out.

THANKS "FROM THE DEPTHS OF THE HEART."

WELLINGTON, Lorain Co., O., Aug. 24, 1874.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sir—Your medicines, Golden Medical Discovery, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, have proved of the greatest service to me. Six months ago no one thought that I could possibly live long. I had a complication of diseases,—scrofula, manifesting itself in eruptions and great blotches on my head that made such sores that I could not have my hair combed without causing me much suffering; also causing swollen glands, tonsils enlarged, enlarged or "thick neck," and large and numerous boils. I also suffered from a terrible Chronic Catarrh, and in fact I was so diseased that life was a burden to me. I had tried many doctors with no benefit. I finally procured one-half dozen bottles of your Golden Medical Discovery and one dozen Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and commenced their use. At first I was badly discouraged, but after taking four bottles of the Discovery I began to improve, and when I had taken the remaining I was well. In addition to the use of Discovery I applied a solution of Iodine to the Goitre or thick neck, as you advise in pamphlet wrapping, and it entirely disappeared. Your Discovery is certainly the most wonderful blood medicine ever invented. I thank God and you, from the depths of my heart, for the great good it has done me.

Very respectfully,
MRS. L. SHAFFEE.

Most medicines which are advertised as blood purifiers and liver medicines contain either mercury, in some form, or potassium and iodine variously combined. All of these agents have strong tendency to break down the blood corpuscles, and debilitate and otherwise permanently injure the human system, and should therefore be discarded. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, on the other hand, being composed of the fluid extracts of native plants, barks and roots, will in no case produce injury, its effects being strengthening and curative only. Sarsaparilla, which used to enjoy quite a reputation as a blood purifier, is a remedy of thirty years ago, and may well give place, as it is doing, to the more positive and valuable vegetable alteratives which later medical investigation and discovery has brought to light. In Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammation, Mercurial affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, and Sore Eyes, as in all other blood diseases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has shown its great remedial powers, curing the most obstinate and intractable cases. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

Three Attainable Blessings.

A good appetite, vigorous digestion and sound sleep are the three blessings that imply a good many more, and are attainable by the daily use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The stomach that is invigorated by that ruling tonic rapidly disposes of the food committed to it, and at the proper time craves for more with natural earnestness, and the brain from pain and despondency have banished by that salutary anodyne and cheering cordial, enjoys at the hour of rest that tranquil, dreamless repose for which no other boon that Providence can bestow can compensate. Besides these most desirable results, the entire physique is strengthened and fortified against the attacks of disease by this splendid vitalizer and protective agent, which, take it altogether, is about the most desirable, as it is unquestionably one of the most popular medicines in existence.
